Constitution

NAME

MEMBERSHIP

Article 2. It shall be composed of messengers elected by the churches connected with this body and all ordained ministers who are pastors of said churches, together with the officers of this Association, and chairmen of all standing committees. Each church of 100 members and under shall be entitled to two messengers, and for each additional 100 members, an additional messenger, provided that no church shall have more than 10 messengers.

PURPOSE

Article 3. The purpose of this Association shall be to inspire, encourage, and enlist its membership in a spirit of brotherly love and cooperation, for the promotion of the entire program of our denomination; to the end that the gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ might be proclaimed with greater power and effectiveness in our Association, our State and Nation, and unto the uttermost part of the world.

POWERS AND PREROGATIVES

Article 4. The Association shall have no powers to infringe upon the sovereignty or rights of the churches. It is neither an ecclesiastical nor legislative council, nor a court of appeal. It may advise the churches and recommend measures of usefulness for their adoption, but cannot bind them in any way. There shall be full recognition of the autonomy of the local church and there shall be full recognition of the autonomy of the Association. However, in view of the combined wisdom, piety and intelligence of the Association, it justly claims the very highest consideration and regard for itself, its objects and its recommendations.

Article 5. Any Baptist church in good standing approving the design, objects and principles of this Association, and holding the same doctrine and ordinances, may be admitted into fellowship upon two-thirds vote of the messengers. All applications shall be referred to the Membership Committee for study. Churches desiring membership should give notice by making application one year in advance.

Article 6. The Association may dissolve its relation with any church that consistently refuses to support the design, objects and principles of the West Chowan Baptist Association. Any irregularities which are reported shall be referred to the Membership Committee who will report their finds to the Fall Associational meeting. The relationship may be dissolved by a two-thirds vote of the messengers one year after irregularities have been brought to the attention of the Association.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES

Article 7. Every church will be requested to contribute a percentage of its gifts, or so much per resident member for defraying the expenses of the Association and for direction of the promotional education and missionary work of the Association. This percentage or amount shall be sent to the Associational Treasurer monthly by each church treasurer.

Article 8. Every church will send to every annual session of the Association a letter on the form adopted by the Association with such additional information as it may deem fitting.

Article 9. Any church wishing to dissolve its relationship with the Association in order to transfer to another association may do so with a majority vote at any regular Associational meeting.

ORGANIZATION

Article 10. The officers of this Association shall be a Moderator, a Vice-Moderator, a Clerk, a Treasurer, a Parliamentarian, a Director of Sunday School, a Director of Discipleship Training, a Director of Brotherhood, a Director of Woman's Missionary Union, a Director of Music, a Director of Missions Development, a Director of Stewardship Development, a Director of Evangelism, and a Director of Pastor/Church Relations. They shall be elected at the Spring Session. The term of all officers shall commence at the conclusion of the Fall Session and continue until their successors are elected in the Spring Session and are ready to take office at the conclusion of the Fall Session.

DUTIES

Article 11. It shall be the duty of the Moderator to open meetings punctually at the appointed time; to enforce the rules; to enforce order and to exercise all prerogatives of a presiding officer according to Robert's Rules of Order.

Article 12. It shall be the duty of the Vice-Moderator to perform the duties of the Moderator in his absence.

Article 13. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to attend and keep a full record of the meetings of the Association and to compile, edit and distribute to the churches the minutes and data from the church letters in an annual report. He may appoint an assistant when necessary. He shall be paid such honorarium and expenses as the Association directs.

Article 14. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive, safeguard and distribute all funds of the Association. Disbursements of funds shall be in accordance with the budget adopted by the Association. He shall make quarterly reports to the Executive Promotion Committee and annual reports to the Fall session. He may be paid honorariums and expenses as the Association may direct. Non-budget items shall be approved by the Stewardship Development Committee. Treasurer shall be under bond.

Article 15. The Parliamentarian shall assist the presiding officer in conducting the business of the Association according to Robert's Rules of Order.

Article 16. The Director of Sunday School shall promote and supervise the Sunday School Program in the Association in cooperation with the Executive Promotion Committee and the Director of Missions.

Article 17. The Director of Discipleship Training Program shall promote and supervise the Discipleship Training Program of the Association in cooperation with the Executive Promotion Committee and the Director of Missions.

Article 18. The Director of Brotherhood shall direct and supervise the program of Baptist men and boys in the Association in cooperation with the Executive Promotion Committee and the Director of Missions.

Article 19. The Director of Woman's Missionary Union shall direct and supervise the program for the women and girls in cooperation with the Executive Promotion Committee and the Director of Missions.

Article 20. The Director of Music shall promote and supervise the program of music in the Association in cooperation with the Executive Promotion Committee and the Director of Missions.

THE EXECUTIVE PROMOTION COMMITTEE

Article 21. The Executive Promotion Committee of the Association shall be the following: Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, Parliamentarian, Director of Woman's Missionary Union, Director of Missions, Director of Sunday School, Director of Discipleship Training, Director of Brotherhood, Director of Music, Director of Stewardship Development, Director of Missions Development, Director of Evangelism and Director of Pastor/Church Relations, the pastor of each church in the Association, provided the pastor is a member of the church he represents, and one lay member from each church.

It shall be the duty of the Executive Promotion Committee to transact whatever business may require attention of the Association between sessions which actions shall be binding on the Association. The Executive Promotion Committee of the Association shall function with those duly elected members present and voting. No percentage quorum is required for these meetings. The Executive Promotion Committee should meet quarterly, and submit a full report of its work to the Association together with recommendations for the promotion and extension of the work, including the Associational budget.

The Associational Council of the Executive Promotion Committee will be composed of the officers of the Association and one representative elected by the Executive Promotion Committee from each county in the Association. This council will work in close harmony with the Director of Missions in plans and programs. The Associational Council of the Executive Promotion Committee shall function with those duly elected officers present and voting at any announced meeting. No percentage quorum is required for these meetings.

In the event that any office, constituted by any article herein, becomes vacant during the Associational year, said office may be filled for the interim by appointment of the Associational Council.

Article 22. The Director of Missions, whom the Association may employ, shall be under the direction of the Associational Council of the Executive Promotion Committee. He shall promote and coordinate the work of the Association through the organizations and programs; and carry out the missionary and extension plans of the Associational Council. He shall be an ex officio member of all committees in an advisory and promotional capacity.

AMENDMENTS

Article 23. This Constitution may be altered at the Fall session of the body by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present and voting. However, a sixty-day notice of the proposed change shall be sent to the Chairman of the Associational Council of the Executive Promotion Committee, and such proposed amendment shall be read on two consecutive days before the action on the same.

COMMITTEES AND THEIR DUTIES

Article 24. The committees of the Association shall be divided into two categories.

Section A. Committees to be appointed by the Moderator in advance of the Fall meeting.

1. A Committee on Enrollment consisting of six. This committee shall recognize and register all messengers and others attending the Association and report to the Association when called upon.

2. A Committee on Committees consisting of two members from each of the counties comprising the Association. This committee shall nominate for election by the Association all standing committees and such other committees as may be assigned to it. This committee should make its primary report during the first session of the Fall meeting. This committee shall designate the chairman of each committee.

Section B. Standing Committees which will serve through the year and which shall report at each session or as the need arises.

1. A Committee on Place and Preacher consisting of three, the duty of which shall be to recommend to the Association where the next Spring and Fall sessions shall meet and the preacher to deliver the annual sermon and his alternate.

2. A Committee on Resolutions consisting of three, the duty of which shall be to draw up and present to the Association suitable resolutions of appreciation and expressions of sentiments on any matter chosen by the committee or referred to the committee by the Moderator of the Association.

3. A Committee on Order of Business consisting of five. The Vice-Moderator shall be the chairman of this committee. It shall be the duty of this committee to present a printed report at both Spring and Fall meetings suggesting the order of business. This report should be acted upon as soon as feasible after the opening of the Association. When adopted, its report shall become the order of the Association and cannot be changed except by majority vote of the body.

4. A Committee on Nominations consisting of three members from each of the counties composing the Association. This committee at the Spring meeting shall nominate representatives of the various institutions, the officers of the Association, and other officers that may be necessary to execute the program of the Association. Nominations by this committee shall not preclude nominations from the floor. No officer of the Association shall hold more than one office at a time. The Nominating Committee should constantly seek the counsel of existing Associational Officer when preparing their report. No name shall be submitted to the Association for election until that individual has agreed to serve if elected.

5. A Trustees Committee consisting of three, the duty of which shall be to hold in trust any property, endowment, or other securities of the Association.

6. A Committee on Ordination consisting of three. It shall be the duty of this committee to make itself available to any church who has a candidate for the Gospel Ministry.

7. A Committee on History consisting of five members, one member elected each year for five years. This committee shall be responsible for compiling and maintaining a history of the Association.

8. A Committee on Memorials consisting of three members elected each year, one from each county. This committee shall be responsible for suitably memorializing deceased members of the churches of the Association and other events as may be necessary.

9. A Committee on Membership consisting of five members, one member elected each year for five years. It shall be the duty of this committee to consult with churches in areas of Church-Association relationships and report the desire of the church as regards status in becoming member churches or in desire to withdraw fellowship. A committee from the church and this committee of the Association on membership shall work in all matters for harmony and good will among the churches. This committee functions at the request of the Associational Council of the Executive Promotion Committee and/or the Association meeting in the Fall.

10. A Committee on the Constitutions consisting of three members being elected each year. This committee shall keep the constitution up to date and recommend revisions in accordance with the provisions of the constitution.

11. A Committee on Libraries consisting of four members elected each year. This committee shall be responsible for the development of the Associational Library organization and will assist the churches in their library work when requested.

12. A Committee on Seminary Extension consisting of three members, one member elected each year for three years. This committee shall plan the courses of study and make all arrangements for a balanced program of study.

13. A Stewardship Development Committee consisting of a Director and nine members, three from each of the counties comprising the Association.

This Committee shall prepare the Associational Budget, promote the cooperative program, designated offerings, promote stewardship development programs. It shall be the duty of this committee to audit the Treasurer's records and report to the Association.

14. A Missions Development Committee consisting of a Director, a representative from W.M.U., Brotherhood and Sunday School. This committee shall challenge the churches to be on mission in discovering areas of unmet needs, to help churches to develop mission development committees to meet these needs, to help coordinate a joint effort between Sunday School, W.M.U. and Baptist Men in outreach ministries with particular emphasis on new work starts. It shall be the responsibility of the committee to recommend to the Associational Council mission priorities and plans.

15. A Committee on Evangelism consisting of a Director and two members from each of the counties composing the Association. This committee shall promote evangelism, plan and promote any special evangelistic rallies, such as a simultaneous revivals, or other evangelistic activities or meetings.

16. A Committee on Pastor/Church Relations consisting of a Director, a pastor and a layperson from each of the counties composing the Association. It shall be the responsibility of the committee to hold meetings for the purpose of developing plans and programs that will enhance the relationships of pastors and churches. It shall be the responsibility of the committee to recommend to the Associational Council priorities and plans for carrying them out.

17. A Committee on Family and Christian Social Ministries consisting of six people -a chairman and five members - two from each of the counties composing the Association. It shall be the responsibility of the committee to conduct surveys to determine needs for strengthening the family and determine the greatest needs in Christian Social Ministries. To develop strategies and report to the Associational Council plans for carrying them out.

Article 25. Any regulation prior to this constitution which conflicts herewith is hereby repealed.

Article 26. Baptist Faith and Message Statement.

I. THE SCRIPTURES

The Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired and is the record of God's revelation of Himself to man. It is a perfect treasure of divine instruction. It has God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth, without any mixture or error, for its matter. It reveals the principles by which God judges us; and therefore is, and will remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and religious opinions should be tried. The criterion by which the Bible is to be interpreted is Jesus Christ.

II. GOD

There is one and only one living and true God. He is an intelligent, spiritual, and personal Being, the Creator, Redeemer, Preserver, and Ruler of the universe. God is infinite in holiness and all other perfections. To Him we owe the highest love, reverence, and obedience. The eternal God reveals Himself to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being.

A. God the Father

God as Father reigns with providential care over His universe, His creatures, and the flow of the stream of human history according to the purposes of His grace. He is all powerful, all loving, and all wise. God is Father in truth to those who become children of God through faith in Jesus Christ. He is fatherly in His attitude toward all men.

B. God the Son

Christ is the eternal Son of God. In His incarnation as Jesus Christ, he was conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. Jesus perfectly revealed and did the will of God, taking upon Himself the demands and necessities of human nature and identifying Himself completely with mankind yet without sin. He honored the divine law by His personal obedience, and in His death on the cross, He made provision for the redemption of men from sin. He was raised from the dead with a glorified body and appeared to His disciples as the person who was with them before His crucifixion. He ascended into heaven and is now exalted at the right hand of God where He is the One Mediator, partaking of the nature of God and of man, and in whose Person is effected the reconciliation between God and man. He will return in power and glory to judge the world and to consummate His redemptive mission. He now dwells in all believers as the living and ever present Lord.

C. God the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God. He inspired holy men of old to write the Scriptures. Through illumination, He enables men to understand truth. He exalts Christ. He convicts of sin, of righteousness and of judgment. He calls men to the Saviour, and effects regeneration. He cultivates Christian character, comforts believers, and bestows the spiritual gifts by which they serve God through His church. He seals the believer unto the day of final redemption. His presence in the Christian is the assurance of God to bring the believer into the fulness of the stature of Christ. He enlightens and empowers the believer and the church in worship, evangelism, and service.

III. MAN

Man was created by the special act of God, in His own image, and is the crowning work of His creation. In the beginning, man was innocent of sin and was endowed by His Creator with freedom of choice. By his free choice, man sinned against God and brought sin into the human race. Through the temptation of Satan, man transgressed the command of God and fell from his original innocence; whereby his posterity inherit a nature and an environment inclined toward sin, and as soon as they are capable of moral action become transgressors and are under condemnation. Only the grace of God can bring man into His holy fellowship and enable man to fulfill the creative purpose of God. The sacredness of human personality is evident in that God created man in His own image, and in that Christ died for man; therefore, every man possesses dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love.

IV. SALVATION

Salvation involves the redemption of the whole man, and is offered freely to all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, who by His own blood obtained eternal redemption for the believer. In its broadest sense, salvation includes regeneration, sanctification, and glorification.

A. Regeneration, or the new birth, is a work of God's grace whereby believers become new creatures of Christ Jesus. It is a change of heart wrought by the Holy Spirit through conviction of sin, to which the sinner responds in repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Repentance and faith are inseparable experiences of grace. Repentance is a genuine turning from sin toward God. Faith is the acceptance of Jesus Christ and commitment of the entire personality to Him as Lord and Saviour. Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal upon principles of His righteousness of all sinners who repent and believe in Christ. Justification brings the believer into a relationship of peace and favor with God.

B. Sanctification is the experience, beginning in regeneration, by which the believer is set apart to God's purposes, and is enabled to progress toward moral and spiritual perfection through the presence and power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in him. Growth in grace should continue throughout the regenerate person's life.

C. Glorification is the culmination of salvation and is the final blessed and abiding state of the redeemed.

V. GOD'S PURPOSE OF GRACE

Election is the gracious purpose of God, according to which He regenerates, sanctifies, and glorifies sinners. It is consistent with the free agency of man, and comprehends all the means in connection with the end. It is glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, and is infinitely wise, holy, and unchangeable. It excludes boasting and promotes humility.

All true believers endure to the end. Those whom God has accepted in Christ, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never fall away from the state of grace, but shall preserve to the end. Believers may fall into sin and through neglect and temptation, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, bring reproach on the cause of Christ, and temporal judgments on themselves, yet they shall be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

VI. THE CHURCH

A New Testament church of the Lord Jesus Christ is a local body of baptized believers who are associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the gospel, observing the two ordinances of Christ, committed to His teachings, exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word, and seeking to extend the gospel to the ends of the earth.

This church is an autonomous body, operating through democratic processes under the Lordship of Jesus Christ. In such a congregation, members are equally responsible. Its Scriptural officers are pastors and deacons.

The New Testament speaks also of the church as the body of Christ which includes all of the redeemed of all the ages.

VII. BAPTISM AND THE LORD'S SUPPER

Christian baptism is the immersion of a believer in water in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is an act of obedience symbolizing the believer's faith in a crucified, buried, and risen Saviour, the believer's death to sin, the burial of the old life, and resurrection to walk in newness of life in Christ Jesus. It is a testimony to his faith in the final resurrection of the dead. Being a church ordinance, it is prerequisite to the privileges of church membership and to the Lord's Supper.

The Lord's Supper is a symbolic act of obedience whereby members of the church, through partaking of the bread and the fruit of the vine, memorialize the death of the Redeemer and anticipate His second coming.

VIII. THE LORD'S DAY

The first day of the week is the Lord's Day. It is a Christian institution for regular observance. It commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the dead and should be employed in exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private, and by refraining from worldly amusements, and resting from secular employments, work of necessity and mercy only being excepted.

IX. THE KINGDOM

The Kingdom of God includes both His general sovereignty over the universe and His particular kingship over men who willfully acknowledge Him as King. Particularly the Kingdom is the realm of salvation into which men enter by trustful, childlike commitment to Jesus Christ. Christians ought to pray and to labor that the Kingdom may come and God's will be done on earth. The full consummation of the Kingdom awaits the return of Jesus Christ and the end of this age.

X. LAST THINGS

God, in His own time and in His own way, will bring the world its appropriate end. According to His promise, Jesus Christ will return personally and visibly in glory to the earth; the dead will be raised; and Christ will judge all men in righteousness. The unrighteous will be consigned to Hell, the place of everlasting punishment. The righteous in their resurrected and glorified bodies will receive their reward and will dwell forever in Heaven with the Lord.

XI. EVANGELISM AND MISSIONS

It is the duty and privilege of every follower of Christ and of every church of the Lord Jesus Christ to endeavor to make disciples of all nations. The new birth of man's spirit by God's Holy Spirit means the birth of love for others. Missionary effort on the part of all rests thus upon a spiritual necessity of the regenerate life, and is expressly and repeatedly commanded in the teachings of Christ. It is the duty of every child of God to seek constantly to win the lost to Christ by personal effort and by all other methods in harmony with the gospel of Christ.

XII. EDUCATION

The cause of education in the Kingdom of Christ is to coordinate with the causes of missions and general benevolence, and should receive along with these, the liberal support of the churches. An adequate system of Christian schools is necessary to a complete spiritual program for Christ's people.

In Christian education, there should be a proper balance between academic freedom and academic responsibility. Freedom in any orderly relationship of human life is always limited and never absolute. The freedom of a teacher in a Christian school, college, or seminary is limited by the preeminence of Jesus Christ, by the authoritative nature of the Scripture, and by the distinct purpose for which the school exists.

XIII. STEWARDSHIP

God is the source of all blessings, temporal and spiritual; all that we have and are, we owe to Him. Christians have a spiritual debtorship to the whole world, a holy trusteeship in the gospel, and a binding stewardship in their possessions. They are therefore under the obligation to serve Him with their time, talents, and material possessions; and should recognize all these as entrusted to them to use for the glory of God and for helping others. According to the Scriptures, Christians should contribute of their means cheerfully, regularly, systematically, proportionately, and liberally for the advancement of the Redeemer's cause on earth.

XIV. COOPERATION

Christ's people should, as occasion requires, organize such associations and conventions as may best secure cooperation for the great objects of the Kingdom of God. Such organizations have no authority over one another or over the churches. They are voluntary and advisory bodies designed to elicit, combine, and direct the energies of our people in the most effective manner. Members of New Testament churches should cooperate with one another in carrying forward the missionary, educational, and benevolent ministries for the extension of Christ's Kingdom. Christian unity in the New Testament sense is spiritual harmony and voluntary cooperation for common ends by various groups of Christ's people. Cooperation is desirable between the various Christian denominations, when the end to be attained is itself justified, and when such cooperation involves no violation of conscience or compromise of loyalty to Christ and His Word as revealed in the New Testament.

XV. THE CHRISTIAN AND THE SOCIAL ORDER

Every Christian is under obligation to seek to make the will of Christ supreme in his own life and in human society. Means and methods used for the improvement of society and the establishment of righteousness among men can be truly and permanently helpful only when they are rooted in the regeneration of the individual by the saving grace of God in Christ Jesus. The Christian should oppose in the spirit of Christ every form of greed, selfishness, and vice. He should work to provide for the orphaned, the needy, the aged, the helpless, and the sick. Every Christian should seek to bring industry, government, and society as a whole under the sway of the principles of righteousness, truth, and brotherly love. In order to promote these ends, Christians should be ready to work with all men of good will in any good cause, always being careful to act in the spirit of love without compromising their loyalty to Christ and His truth.

XVI. PEACE AND WAR

It is the duty of Christians to seek peace with all men on principles of righteousness. In accordance with the spirit and teachings of Christ, they should do all in their power to put an end to war.

The true remedy for the war spirit is the gospel of our Lord. The supreme need of the world is the acceptance of His teachings in all the affairs of men and nations, and the practical application of His law of love.

XVII. RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

God alone is Lord of the conscience, and He has left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are contrary to His Word or not contained in it. Church and state should be separate. The state owes to every church protection and full freedom in the pursuit of its spiritual ends. In providing for such freedom, no ecclesiastical group or denomination should be favored by the state more than others. Civil government being ordained of God, it is the duty of Christians to render loyal obedience thereto in all things not contrary to the revealed will of God. The church should not resort to the civil power to carry on its work. The gospel of Christ contemplates spiritual means alone for the pursuit of its ends. The state has no right to impose penalties for religious opinions of any kind. The state has no right to impose taxes for the support of any form of religion. A free church in a free state is the Christian ideal, and this implies the right of free and unhindered access to God on the part of all men, and the right to form and propagate opinions in the sphere of religion without interference by the civil power.

Proceedings

West Chowan Baptist Association
Sixth Annual Spring Meeting
Tuesday, April 30, 1991
MARS HILL BAPTIST CHURCH

THEME: "Witnessing/Giving Life Commitment"

1. A musical prelude was presented by Mrs. Carrie Brown, organist and Mrs. Ruth Davidson, pianist.
2. Mr. Norman Godwin, moderator of the West Chowan Baptist Association, called the sixth annual Spring meeting to order.
3. Miss Anna Belle Crouch, Association Music Director, led the congregation in singing the hymn "Something For Thee."
4. Rev. George Wilmore, pastor of Mars Hill Baptist Church, welcomed everyone and led in prayer.
5. The history of Mars Hill Baptist Church was read by Mr. Stanley Miller.
6. Rev. Lonnie Armstrong, Director of Missions, recognized the new pastors that were present:
    1. Ahoskie First - Rev. Jesse Croom
    2. Union - Rev. John Baker
    3. Merry Hill - Rev. Ralph Knight
7. In the business session the officers that were elected by the nominating committee were approved. There were three positions that had not been filled at this time.
8. The hymn "Heralds of Christ" was sung by the congregation.
9. Rev. Ken Batts, Associate Cooperative Program and Stewardship Department of the Baptist State convention, spoke on Witnessing/Giving Life. His scripture was taken from Matthew 28:18-20. He said that Jesus called us to witness and he has all the authority and that gives him the right to call us to witness and to give life. If we don't, we will suffer the consequences. He went on to say that all the programs of the churches should be centered around sharing the good news of Christ.
10. Special music was presented by Rev. Hugh Patterson, pianist, and Miss Anna Belle Crouch Soloist.
11. Rev. Ronald McSwain, pastor of Early's Baptist church, brought the afternoon message "Punching Holes in Darkness," scripture Matthew 5:14-16. Rev. McSwain said that Robert Louis Stevenson told about the time as a boy he was watching a lamp lighter light the street lamps and he called his mother to come and see this man punching holes in the darkness. Rev. McSwain then said, that is what Jesus wants us to do for it was Jesus who said we are the light of the world, we are to let our light shine so it will punch holes in the darkness of sin.
12. The hymn "Hark, The Voice of Jesus Calling" was sung by the congregation.
13. Rev. Jesse Croom, pastor of Ahoskie First Baptist Church led in prayer blessing the evening meal that was served by Mars Hill and Bethany Baptist Churches.

EVENING SESSION

14. Music prelude
15. The hymn "I Need Thee Every Hour" was sung by the congregation.
16. The invocation was given by Rev. Tommy Tripp, pastor of Bethany Baptist Church.
17. Rev. Lonnie Armstrong, Director of Missions gave the association report. He invited everyone to the association's Missions Fair, May 19 at the association office. It is to begin with a tree planting ceremony in the yard, and then inside the different organizations will have a display. Rev. Armstrong told the congregation to be much in prayer because we are living in a changing society. He had been reading some of the predictions for the future for the next few years and it was mind boggling what was being said. Some of the things that were said were more than the mind could really understand. Everything is geared for the future and so we need to pray that we will be ready to meet the future as we come to it.
18. The resolutions committee report was presented by Rev. Bill McEntire, pastor of Pleasant Grove Baptist Church. This was adopted by the association.
19. Rev. Henry Boschen, pastor of Holly Springs Baptist Church told the congregation that he had been asked to be chairman of a committee called "Hate Crime" in the W.C.B. association area and was asking the association permission to be their chairman. Due to not understanding what this was all about it was referred to the council for a study before it was voted on.
20. Rev. Tommy Tripp told the congregation that several people had asked him to make a motion that beginning with the fall meeting, each messenger pay $4 or $5 for the meals, because the cost of food was so high that the small churches could not afford to pay for it. He was advised that this was already in the discussing stage with the council and that the churches would be informed before the fall meeting of the decision of the council.
21. The Mars Hill Choir under the direction of Mrs. Peggy Jones presented the special music for the evening session.
22. Mr. Bob Watson, Director of Church Extension of the Baptist State Convention brought the evening message. He told the congregation that we had to get back to the basics and to remember where we started and how we started. Some years ago, some of the Southern Baptist leaders thought we were too sophisticated to use the basics that we started with, so they discarded them and another denomination picked them up and began to use them. Now they are growing, so we have to get back to the basics of teaching the Bible and showing the lost that we care for them because 51.8% of the people are not churched.
23. There were a total of 166 present at the meeting.
24. The closing hymn "O Master, Let Me Walk With Thee" was sung by the congregation
25. The Sixth Annual Spring Meeting was closed with a prayer.

Resolution Committee Report

The West Chowan Baptist Association in it's 6th Annual Spring Meeting on Tuesday, April 30, 1991 would like to make these resolutions:

1. We express our appreciation for our host and co-host churches, Mars Hill and Bethany for allowing us to meet with them, and providing our evening meal.
2. We express our appreciaion for all of the inspirational music that was presented to us.
3. We express our thanks to those who delivered our messages, Rev. Ronald McSwain from Early's Church and Mr. Bob Watson, Director of Church Extension of the Baptist State Convention and to Mr. Ken Batts, Cooperative Program and Stewardship Department of B.S.C.
4. We express our thanks for our theme this year. May we faithfully and obediently witness and share spiritual attitudes with others. May we give the hope of Jesus Christ to all we encounter.
5. We express our thanks to Mr. Norman Godwin for serving as our moderator.
6. We express our appreciation to our Director of Missions, Rev. Lonnie Armstrong for the faithfulness of his call to God and to our association.

Respectfully submitted,
Shelby Stevens

History of Mars Hill Baptist Church: 1854-1991

In a little village near what is now Trap, in Bertie County, the people met in a school house about one half mile from the present site of Mars Hill Baptist Church. That 1853 prayer meeting lasted twelve days. When the meeting closed, there were thirty-two professions of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Rev. John Nowell was invited to come and administer the ordinance of baptism, which took place at the Chowan River. From that humble beginning arose the desire to have a local church fellowship.

The people in the immediate area, members of Colerain Baptist Church, living some distance from their church, felt the need for, and saw the possibilities for, a new church. Meeting together, agreement was made and they proceeded to organize Mars Hill Baptist Church September 29, 1854. After a message by Elder James Delk from Isaiah 7:25, eighteen letters of dismission were received from Colerain Baptist Church and the new organization was begun.

The first order of business for the newly organized church was the adoption of rules of Decorum and a Covenant of Faith. Later that year, Rev. B.B. Williams was called as pastor of the church and duly ordained to the full work of the ministry.

Rev. Williams served the church as pastor until the Civil War. He left to serve as Chaplain in the southern Army. Most of the men from the community were gone and the church was unable to continue regular services. This difficult time left the church disorganized and torn asunder.

Soon after the war was over, February 1866, the people of the community met again to reorganize the church, that it might once again work in peace, union, and fellowship. Rev. B.B. Williams, among others, returned to help with the reorganization. The roll was called and ninety were received, thirty-one men and fifty-nine women, as being in full fellowship with the church. Rev. Williams accepted the pastorate in January 1867, serving until 1874.

Two pastors served the next six years. Unable to secure a pastor, the pastor from Harrellsville supplied for a few months in 1883. A pastor was called in August 1883. The church was once again stable and growing.

Difficult times came again when a fierce winter storm tore through the Trap community February 16, 1903, severely damaging the Mars Hill Baptist Church Building. As soon as possible a committee was appointed to assess the damage. Meanwhile services were held at the Perry Schoolhouse. The committee reported that the building could be temporarily repaired, but a new structure would have to take its place. Dedication for the new Mars Hill Baptist Church building took place September 29, 1904, just fifty years after the church was organized.

Uninterrupted service was provided to the community through Mars Hill Church for the next thirty-six years.

Hardship came again June 26, 1940. It is believed that some painting supplies spontaneously ignited to set the building aflame. The building was burned beyond repair. The membership elected to build a new church of modern design with brick veneer. Though the fire was tragic and thorough, it served to unite the church and community. Much of the material and labor for the new structure was donated. With the spirit of loyalty and cooperation the present building was finished and dedicated at a cost of eighteen thousand dollars.

In the years that followed several additions to the church property have been made. A new parsonage, built in 1960 added to the comfort of the pastors who have served the church and community. By the Spring of 1976 two class rooms and the fellowship hall, with kitchen and rest rooms were completed and dedicated. More recently, sacrificial gifts and memorial offerings have been used to buy a new organ and piano. Heating and air conditioning have been upgraded for more efficient service.

Each year we strive for continued outreach in our community as well as adding to our commitment to support missionary activities at home and around the world.

History of Bethany Baptist Church

BETHANY CELEBRATES 110TH BIRTHDAY

Bethany Baptist Church became a reality following the August, 1881, revival which was held in the old Perry's Cross schoolhouse by the Rev. Josephus Lynch, who became Bethany's first pastor. Freeman Perry donated the land which housed the congregation of Bethany. The church structure, which was begun in 1882, was completed in 1883. The Rev. W.P. Jordan was Bethany's pastor at the time the building was dedicatd in 1884.

Under the leadership of the Rev. George Leggett, three extra rooms were added to the front of the church structure at a cost of $3,500.00 in 1922. During the Rev. K.E. Bryant's pastorate in 1935, six additional classrooms were built onto the back of the structure. In 1936, the pastor's salary was raised to $400.00 a year.

In October, 1947, Bethany and Ross entered the field of joint-pastoring. The Rev. Roy Young was called as the pastor in February, 1948.

One acre of land was purchased from Mrs. Lottie Cofield in November, 1950, for the parsonage. Almost thirty-one (31) years later, in July, 1981, the church parsonage was completed and it was dedicated on October 25, 1981, Bethany's centennial.

In January, 1980, Ross Baptist Church decided that their church needed a full-time pastor. At that time, Bethany and Capeharts entered a joint-pastorate field. On October 12, 1980, Bethany went back to a full-time minister with the Rev. Cecil Harkey being called as Bethany's first full-time pastor in thirty-three (33) years.

Other major improvements, occurrences, or donations in the life of Bethany Baptist Church include the following: (1) the church structure was brick veneered in February, 1961; (2) the church structure was burned extensively in March, 1961; (3) the inside of the church structure was sand finished in April, 1961; (4) an organ was donated by Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Lawrence in August, 1962; (5) the church structure was renovated extensively on the inside in 1982-this included new carpet, pews, stained glass windows, and baptistry; (6) the pulpit furniture was donated in 1982 by Mr. and Mrs. Haywood White; (7) the sanctuary chandeliers were donated by Patsy Perry Cooke, in 1984; (8) an organ donated by Mr. Andy Hewlett was dedicated on February 2, 1986; (9) the back classrooms were carpeted in 1986; (10) the sound system was installed in 1988; (11) the interior of the parsonage was painted in 1990; (12) the exterior of the church structure was painted in 1990; (13) a copier was purchased in 1990; (14) aluminum siding was purchased and applied to the exterior of the parsonage in 1990; (15) a van was purchased in 1990; (16) the church began participating in the adopt-an-annuitant program in 1990; (17) two new heating/air-conditioning units were added in December, 1990; (18) a riding mower was purchased in 1991; (19) the church began sponsoring the radio program "The Baptist Hour" on WDRP in 1991; and (20) Bethany's mission support for the last two years added together exceeded Bethany's total 1980 receipts. "To God be the glory for the things He has done."

Our prayer and desire is that God will continue to bless us as we labor in His service. In His infinite wisdom and mercy, God has seen fit to bless and use Bethany in the past. We believe that even greater days are ahead for Bethany as we keep our eyes upon Him and do His blessed will.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Tommy Tripp, Pastor
Venell Byrum, Belva Cale, and
Nadine Hewitt, History Committee

58. The hymn "Jesus Calls Us O'er The Tumult" was sung by the congregation, led by Miss Anna Belle Crouch.
59. This concluded the 108th West Chowan Baptist Association Fall Session. The meeting was adjourned with "The Lords Prayer."

Resolution Committee Report

The Resolution Committee would like to propose the following resolutions:

1. The program of this our 108th Annual Associational Meeting has been well planned and balanced in its presentation of the Lords work in and among our sixty churches. The messengers and presentations have been well instructive, informative and inspirational.
2. Be it resolved, that we express our gratitude to all who have participated in the program by delivering messages, serving on committees, making reports, and bringing worshipful music.
3. Be it resolved, that we express our thanks to the host churches, Conway Baptist, and Ahoskie First Baptist; our thanks also to the co-host churches, Roberts Chapel and Union Baptist for their gracious and kind hospitality.
4. Our appreciation to Norman Earl Godwin for serving as Moderator.
5. Be it resolved, that we encourage the West Chowan Baptist Association to reach out further to the masses in our areas with the word of God, teaching, reaching, and making disciples of Christ.
6. Be it resolved, that this new year will be one of great discoveries for our Association, and for our Churches as we win the lost for Christ.

History of Conway Baptist Church

In the year of 1905, a group of Baptist church members who were attending Robert's Chapel, Potecasi and Murfreesboro deemed it proper that a local Baptist church should be organized in the community of Conway.

On August 26th, of the same year, a group of thirty men and three women met in the public school, which was located on the present church lot, to consider the wisdom of such a step. A committee was appointed to contact those of the Baptist faith to see how many would be interested in joining a local church, if one was started.

On September 2nd, the committee reported that 108 people were willing to join the new church and on October 8, 1905, a group of Baptists, in the vicinity of Conway, met in the schoolhouse and organized a Baptist church. There were 76 who presented letters and became chartered members of the church. Rev. C.W. Scharboro was called to be the first Pastor. Within two years, from the time the church was organized, they built their first House of Worship on a large lot given by Mr. Abner Lassiter, grandfather of the present Abner P. Lassiter. During the next three years, with help from sister churches, Conway Baptist was able to pay the indebtedness of its church. The church had the wisdom to purchase the adjoining schoolhouse lot for future growth.

In May 1941, the Reverend Lonnie Sasser was called as pastor and during the following three years the membership grew, money became easier to come by and the church soon discovered it needed more Sunday School space. A Church Conference was called and a motion was made to start a building fund and ask all members to contribute.

On May 18, 1949, the new church building was started. On August 13, 1950, the members met for the first time in the new brick church of early colonial style, carpeted and furnished. Through faithful giving the indebtedness of the church was liquidated in December 1952.

Before Rev. Sasser resigned he led the church in the project of purchasing a lot and erecting a parsonage. The Rev. Donald J. Dunlap was the first minister to occupy the parsonage.

Plans were adopted to build a separate building with covered walkway. The new building was begun in 1985 and was completed in 1986 at a total cost of $265,000.00. This debt was retired in 1989.

Women were elected to serve on the board of deacons in 1985.

Our church was incorporated September 9, 1990.

Ministers ordained by Conway Baptist Church to preach the gospel were R. Kelly White and Paul Sykes in July 1917, and Benny Pledger on July 13, 1950.

Many people in the past have contributed to the growth of our church by giving generously of their time, talents and tithes. Those examples are faithfully followed by our young adults who are assuming roles of leadership and responsibility for the future of Conway Baptist Church. From a meager beginning budget in 1940 of $2,337.00 our budget has increased to $149,941.00 for 1991-92.

Conway Baptist Church is a mission minded church. We support the Cooperative Program, and our Home and Foreign Missions.

Rev. James E. Hester has been our Pastor for the last thirteen years. Our church has grown physically and spiritually under his leadership.

Jean Ricks

History of Robert's Chapel Baptist Church

Roberts Chapel Baptist Church of Pendleton was organized in October, 1848 under the auspices of church leaders from Meherrin and Potecasi, many of whom assisted in the establishment of Chowan College that same year.

There had been an interdenominational group of worshippers, of both races, from southern Virginia and northeastern North Carolina who had been meeting in a small building served by home missionaries and traveling ministers of various faiths. Eventually those of the Baptist faith outnumbered the others. From this nucleus, thirty became charter members of the new church, established under the name of Roberts Chapel Baptist Church. The congregation began to grow until more than 500 were enrolled. In 1873 the church obtained a government grant giving it full possession and ownership of the building and grounds. Members then began work toward a new building and more land. Adjoining land was donated and members began selecting, cutting, dressing, and hauling lumber from their own forests to the church grounds. Withstanding the rigors of a civil war, they were able to construct and dedicate the new and larger building in 1871. The first two "Infant Classrooms" were added in 1888, thus becoming the first Sunday School classrooms in the association. This building was destroyed by fire on Sunday, December 14, 1924 and a new modern brick sanctuary was completed in 1927 in the heart of Pendleton, while the old location on the outskirts of the community became the church cemetery.

Five months after its establishment the church petitioned for membership in the Chowan Association; it sent delegates to the Chowan Union Meeting held in Potecasi in 1850; and it was received as a member of the Bertie Union Meeting in 1850. Later in 1883, this church assisted in the formation of a new association, the West Chowan, Roberts Chapel being the fourth oldest member from Northampton County.

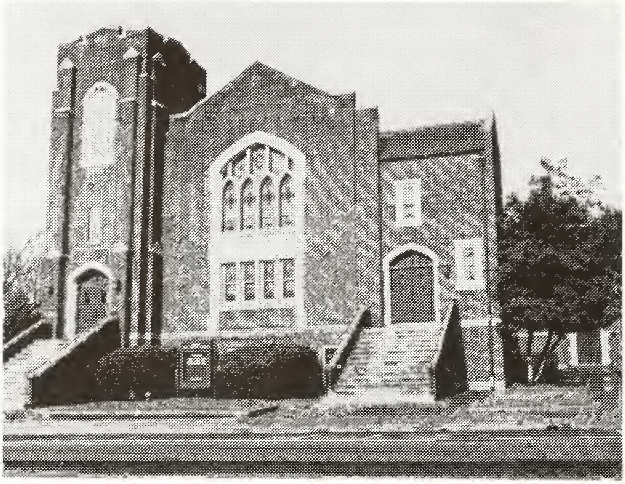
The church has given scholarships and supported Chowan College, assisted Wake Forest College as early as 1882, helped financially with the Thomasville Orphanage, and gave its first ordained minister, Jess Boone, in 1861 to pastor the orphanage.

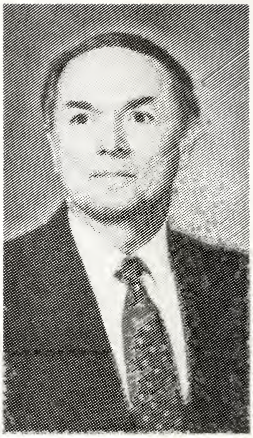
The following Baptist churches have been formed from this congregation or been helped financially and spiritually in their establishments: Corinth in 1855, Jackson in 1876, Severn in 1896, Woodland in 1904, a church house on Roanoke Island in 1905, Conway in 1905, and Ashleys Grove in 1909.

The church has ordained five men for the Christian ministry: Jess Boone, 1860; Robert D. Stephenson, 1905; Jack Barnes, 1907; Bailey Jones, 1940; and H.C. Lowder, around 1930.

From 1886 until 1932 Roberts Chapel was in partnership with Como Baptist Church. After that date Roberts Chapel Church shared pastors with neighboring churches, until 1953. In the fall of 1953, the decision was made to go to full-time ministry and build a home for the pastor. In January, 1954, the church called Randolph Phillips, a student at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, as the first full-time pastor and the first student pastor. The pastor moved into the new parsonage May 1, 1954.

Since Roberts Chapel Church became full-time, a number of things have been done to enhance the ministry and promote spiritual growth and worship, as well as spiritual and social fellowship. These things include the addition of much needed children's class rooms and nursery facilities, and a social hall with kitchen. The sanctuary has been completely renovated, adding to its beauty and worshipfulness, as well as improving the acoustics. A beautiful lighted steeple was given by the G.E. Fisher family and chimes were given by Mr. and Mrs. John Glover in memory of their daughter-in-law's father, William D. Edwards. Recently, Emma Gay Stephenson provided the funds for complete landscaping of the church grounds.





History of First Baptist Church, Ahoskie

In the midst of a great movement of revivalism and evangelism and the beginnings of modern missions, a mission of the Meherrin Baptist Church was begun in 1803 in the area later to be known as the Town of Ahoskie. C.W. Mitchell, historian of the Chowan Association, called it "the most fertile section of eastern North Carolina." A year later, in 1804, First Baptist Church of Ahoskie was organized with sixty-seven members, with Hillary Morris of Meherrin as the first pastor.

In 1805, the Church was received into the Kehukee Association and a year later was one of the eighteen churches that formed the Chowan Association. In 1883, the church was again one of eighteen churches that formed the West Chowan Baptist Association. In 1899, the West Chowan Baptist Association met at First Baptist Church for the fourth time and the Recorder reported 2,500-3,000 messengers and visitors present.

First Baptist Church has been led by only twenty-two pastors in 187 years. One pastor, Dr. John Mitchell, served as pastor on two occasions. The late Reverend Oscar Creech had the longest pastorate, twenty-six years (1925-1951). Pastors following Mr. Creech in the last half of the twentieth century have been William Milne, Isaac Terrell, Billy T. Mobley and James Langford. The present pastor, Jesse J. Croom, assumed pastoral responsibilities on January 1, 1991.

Staff members have also contributed greatly to the life and work of First Baptist Church. Among them, the following have served notably: Miss Josephine Hair, Mr. and Mrs. L.C. Pinnix, John Fischer, Adrian Littlejohn, Bob Dills and Wm. Don Gober.

Having been birthed out of revivalism and evangelism, First Baptist Church has been fortunate to nurture a number of young people who have responded to God's call and are serving in Christian vocations. David Leary, Dennis Bazemore, and Robbie Parker have had fruitful ministries as pastors. Jim Hyatt, Garner Keel, Leah Wiggins Stubbs, and Anita Thompson have served as Ministers of Music. L.K. Godwin, Jr., is ministering in denominational work. In 1991, a number of young people are preparing themselves for Christian ministries.

Growing to maturity during the modern missions movement, First Baptist Church has had a commendable record in supporting associational, state, home and foreign missions. The vision of the Church is to continue sharing Christ in this "most fertile section of eastern North Carolina" and to the ends of the earth.

History of Union Baptist Church

Most of the people in the small community of Union in the late nineteenth century were Methodists. The Baptists were few in number and therefore they worshipped with the Methodists.

In the Spring of 1885 a group of Baptist men met in an old school house on Liverman Mill Road and organized a Baptist Church. The first recorded conference of this church was held the first Sunday in May, 1885. At this first conference it was decided that the church would be called Union Baptist Church for the village where the church was located. Also it was decided that the Reverend John Mitchell was to be called as the first pastor.

At the next called business meeting a committee was appointed to find and purchase a lot for a church building. The land was purchased from George W. Wynn for the sum of $49.00. Church members gave lumber and other building materials needed for the church building. In August, 1891, the church building was completed debt free. On October, 1891 the new building was dedicated. Dr. A.E. Owens preached the dedicatory sermon.

Over the years Union Baptist has been actively involved in the Southern Baptist Convention. One of the notable accomplishments has been the church's dedication to missions - state, home, and foreign missions. In 1898 a Women's Missionary Union was formed and this has been the back bone of the mission's outreach of the church. Women have played a vital role in the establishment of this church and also have had considerable influence on its spiritual growth.

The church has been very active in this century with the West Chowan Baptist Association. Members of Union Baptist Church have played key roles in the success of this fine organization. A number of members of this church have served as directors of associational program and outreaches.

Union Baptist Church has sent out from its membership one missionary, three pastors, and one associational worker. At the same time scores of lay workers have been raised up to carry on the work of the local church.

In 1952, the church voted to build a parsonage. In 1964, a dedicatory service was held and the note was burned. In 1979, the church voted to call the Reverend Thomas Hayes as its first full-time pastor.

Under the leadership of Reverend Hayes, an educational building was started. The building provided the church with five classrooms, additional restrooms, a pastor's study, kitchen, and fellowship hall. This building was dedicated to the memory of J.L. Darden, Sr.

Since the church was organized in 1885, thirty-seven pastors have served the church. Throughout the years there have been many changes - most of which have been recorded. What has not been recorded is the dedication, the love of God and man, and the service of many Godly people.

HOLIDAYS AND VACATION

Holidays	10
Vacation	5

I want to thank the Lord for a good year. We have been busy with many good things taking place. Also, I want to say thanks to all of the Directors of our Programs and Committee Chairmen and members of all committees for their help. To all the churches for their prayers and financial support. We could not have done it without you. We are moving on towards our goals and looking for greater things in the New Year. My prayers go out for you and to you. Keep up the good work.

Lonnie R. Armstrong,
Director of Missions

Executive Promotion Committee Report

The Executive Promotion Committee met four times during the associational year. Each organizational director and committee chairman was given an opportunity to give a report and promote their work.

Mr. Norman E. Godwin, vice-moderator accepted the moderator's position due to the resignation of Rev. Gerald Riggs, who moved to Rocky Mount.

Some of the highlights in the association this year were:

1. Adopted an annuity of $600 in assistance to one retired minister from NC.
2. Good cooperation from churches for commitments to host and co-host meetings through 1995.
3. Seminary Extension classes at Odom Prison with eight out of twelve completing the course.
4. Observed Associational Emphasis Week, May 19-26, 1991. A week of prayer and open house on Sunday, May 19 at the Association office.
5. Designated April 4, 1992 as Cooperative Program Day with a speaker from the Baptist State Convention to speak in each church that day.

6. Designated September 22, 1991 as Pastor & Staff Appreciation Day.
7. Designated June 6 - August 16, 1992 to use an Apostoloi Team that is put together and trained by the Youth and Campus Ministries Department of BSC.
8. Designated March 14-21, 1993 as the week for World Missions Conference.
9. Adopted the 1991-1992 association budget.

The association has been very busy this year and under the leadership of the Director of Missions, committees and the churches, a lot of good things have been accomplished and we give our Lord all the praise and glory for it.

Associational Clerk

Missions Development

The Missions Development Council is composed of a director, representatives of Sunday School, Woman's Missionary Union, and Brotherhood, and the directors of the component programs which this year have included these ministries: Ethnics, Disaster Relief, Senior Adults, Student Summer Missions, and Church Extension. Other missions ministries are being considered for next year or some future time.

Corene Harris has been working in the area of ministry among ethnics. She accepted an invitation to teach the Baptist doctrine study book, Hearers and Doers, The Doctrine of the Laity, at Bethlehem Baptist Church of Seaboard. This summer, working in cooperation with Galatia Baptist Church and Bethlehem Baptist Church, a one day Vacation Bible School was organized and carried out in a housing project in Seaboard resulting in 14 professions of faith, including two young men ages 20 and 21. Mrs. Harris presented a program on foreign missions and on her mission trips to Africa at a missions meeting at a Black Baptist Church in Margarettsville. Baptist Sunday School Board materials and WMU materials were provided for a youth worker in Murfreesboro.

Disaster Relief Ministry has had a strong beginning in our association this year. There were 19 from our association representing 5 churches who attended the training session in May at Camp Caraway and organized our Disaster Relief Team. Our team works in cooperation with the Disaster Relief Ministry of the North Carolina Baptist Men. We have had three additional training sessions since May, at Wilmington, at the Associational office, and at Cool Spring Baptist Church, to sharpen our skills in using the Disaster Relief Unit, which is primarily a feeding unit capable of preparing up to 3,000 meals per day. The team showed the Unit in Ahoskie at the Associational Missions Fair, at Galatia Church, and at Winton Church. The Disaster Relief Team trains to be ready to respond to disasters when the feeding unit is called for, with the hope and prayer that we will never be needed. The West Chowan team has been alerted two times this year to prepare to go but we were not called. Additional volunteers are welcome on the team.

A Senior Adult Ministry was begun with a rally on June 22 at Edgewood Baptist Church. Entertainment was provided by Dan Graves, Tempie Wood, Stephen Moore, and Kimbo the Clown. We had a time of singing and special music was provided. An inspirational devotional was given by Andy Wood. Thanks to Edgewood Baptist Church for the use of their facilities and for volunteers who prepared lunch for us. A good time was had by all who attended and we are looking forward to our next rally.

Missions Development worked in cooperation with the Church Extension Department of the Baptist State Convention to have Miss Kim Piland, a native of Cofield and a student at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, to work in West Chowan Association this past summer as student summer missionary to assist our churches in ministry with children, youth, and adults, particularly in the areas of Vacation Bible School and Backyard Bible Clubs. Miss Piland worked in Tunis, Winton, Robert's Chapel, Music Day Camp, Union, Menola, Center Grove, and Powellsville. Her activities included five Backyard Bible Clubs, three Vacation Bible Schools, one senior adult rally, one music day camp, several children's sermons, one lock-in, several visits by Kimbo the Clown, door-to-door visitation, and other activities. Our thanks to the Baptist State Convention Church Extension Department for their assistance in this project.

Missions Development has been concerned with the lack of growth and the decline of our churches. This concern led to the invitation to Bob Watson of the Church Extension Department of the Convention to come to West Chowan Association to present his proposal for a pilot project of PACT Studies for Long Range Planning and Shaping the Future of our churches, a project which will begin next year in several of our churches.

RA Report

We had a very successful year in RAs. We had RA Week, November 5-11. All churches were asked to participate and on November 10 we had an RA Rally at Ross Baptist Church in Bertie County. There were 48 boys and leaders in attendance. During RA Week there was a film shown at the associational office entitled "RAs Go To Camp."

December 1 we attempted to have a World Walk for Foreign Missions. It was rained out.

In April we had RA Field Day. It was very well attended by many of our churches. Ribbons and certificates were given to each one participating. Refreshments were furnished.

In the spring we tried to have a Home Mission World Walk. It was rained out.

We have talked with several churches concerning RAs. If you have any boys in your church that are not in an active program, why not call me and lets get RAs started.

Thank you for all your support this year. Be sure to look at the calendar for next year and plan to take part in RA activities. You won't regret it.

Stewardship Development Committee Report

The Stewardship Development Committee gives thanks to all our churches for their gifts to the West Chowan Baptist Association for the year 1990-91. It has been your support that has made this year a good one.

This committee has worked hard with the emphasis in May of Associational Emphasis Week and the theme "Our Roots Go Deep." A tree planting ceremony was held on May 19, 1991 to begin the week of prayer for West Chowan.

This committee worked on the new budget for 1991-92 and presented it to the Council and Executive Promotional Committee and was adopted. The total is $75,402.45

The Associational Stewardship Program Budget must be viewed as one of primary importance. Success in an associational stewardship program budget calls for this high view of stewardship and its relationship to others.

Thank you again for your fine work, concern and support of West Chowan Baptist Association.

Respectfully submitted,
Ronald W. McSwain,
Director

Seminary Extension

Some good things are happening with Seminary Extension, and we anticipate a more active center in the year to come.

The first SE Course was conducted at Odom Prison by Chaplain Craig Stevens. Twelve students began the course. Two were transferred, and eight successfully completed the course, "Understanding the Bible." The details were handled by the associational office, and in conjunction with the state office. Reimbursement has been obtained from the state convention.

Two courses are being proposed for the New Associational year at Odom.

Your Seminary Extension Director attended the Key Leadership Conference, and learned much about what is involved in this educational opportunity. Subsequently, we participated in the Mission Fair on May 19 during Associational Emphasis Week. Also, a survey has been made to ascertain which courses are of greatest interest to pastors and others. The most interest revolved around two courses: Family Life Today and Church Growth. There is also interest in a music ministry course — i.e. Leading a Music Ministry in a Small Church.

It now appears that the three above courses: Family Life Today, Church Growth, and Leading a Music Ministry in a Small Church, will be scheduled to begin in either January or February of 1992. Watch the Associational News Letter for more information, and watch your mail. Please help promote the participation of those who would benefit most from these courses.

Seminary Extension Courses can stimulate pastors and lay people, infuse life into our churches, and strengthen our fellowship. When the courses are offered, we hope you will take advantage of this excellent educational opportunity.

WMU Annual Report 1991

EMPOWERED! Our theme for the year!

Women's Missionary Union, WMU, of the West Chowan Baptist Association exists to teach churches about missions so they will become more involved in missions at home and around the world through active ministry of prayer for and financial support of missions. The work of the WMU is directed by the associational council, which is composed of 17 members that represent each county in our association. We have had a wonderful year learning to use the empowered spirit we have received from the Lord, and sharing this empoweredness with the people of West Chowan Baptist Association.

Our year began with an annual planning session followed by a state-wide training conference at Caswell. Leadership training sessions, for all age levels and directors, were held at Aulander and Creech in September. The church year has been full of opportunities to learn about missions and to serve the Lord through mission action. These opportunities included the following: Acteens Council, GA Fun Day, Women's World Day of Prayer at Ahoskie, BYW Prayer Retreat, Missions Friends Training, Mission Action Fair, Acteen International Friendship Tea, age level study courses and book studies, home and foreign mission studies, age level banquets and recognition services, the state WMU Annual Meeting in Winston-Salem, Associational WMU Annual Meeting at Askewville, BW's trip to Cary, WMU Focus Week, day and overnight GA camps, Associational Emphasis Week Open House, Odom Prison Christmas project, Women's Correctional Center Christmas project, Hospice, food pantry, and SAFE projects, and Mission Support prayer activities. Based on the achievement guide, there were nine churches that qualified for the distinguished award and one church for the standard award. Our assocation was distinguished.

If we are to continue to be empowered, we must continue to grow. The Enlistment/Enlargement Banquet held at Chowan College encouraged churches to increase WMU membership. The BW and BYW did a terrific job in planning this standing room only activity. Another successful activity was the Home Mission Study, held in each county, that reached over 40 churches. Your WMU Council has been a hard working group of wonderful Christian women. I would like to say THANK YOU to these women for all the hard work that has gone into making this such a successful year.

At the annual meeting our director, Doris Riggs, announced that she and her husband were moving to Rocky Mount. Our association will greatly miss this Christian family.

This has truly been an inspiring year as all the council members have learned to use the power that is ours through the Holy Spirit. We ask for your prayers as we continue to work for the Lord. My prayer is that all of us realize the empowered spirit we already have and to use that power to spread the work of Christ for we are "labourers together for God."

Empowered through the Holy Spirit,
Melinda M. Harris, WMU Director
Wanda McEntire, Asst. WMU Director

Sunday School

Sunday School has had a good year I feel. We are striving for an increase still. Our ASSISTeam went to Cary in February for training. We thank you for allowing us to go on behalf of West Chowan. Some of us have taught conferences in other associations as well as our own. Sept. 10th we had our S.S. Leadership Conference at Ahoskie First. Our VBS Director and her team have done a great job. I hope all reports are in by now. We need to reach more people for Bible Study. I need to thank the ASSISTeam for all their help and support this year. I thank you for allowing me to serve and I thank God for allowing me to serve Him.

Over and over God has broken through and spoken to men and women through His word. As we enter into the second year of BREAKTHROUGH may God's word break through to His people. We need a fresh commitment to Bible Study and Prayer, a renewed commitment to live out the Christian life. Sunday School is at the very heart of BREAKTHROUGH - Teach the Bible to Win. There must be a strong and continuing commitment to reach, enroll and teach the Bible to win the lost.

The greatest BREAKTHROUGH is yet to come. It will not come through anything you or I plan and do, but it will come as a result of the Holy Spirit working in our lives. Looking forward to a great and exciting year as we Teach the Bible to Win (Souls).

Ruth Miller,
Director

Music

West Chowan churches have been participating in music activities during this year. You are to be commended for your interest, enthusiasm and local projects. Thank you for being special and supportive.

October: Individual church music planned for one year; church choirs assisted in fall associational meeting, including a concert.

November: B.W. World Day of Prayer interracial chorus led in music for associational meeting; Mr. Charles Story, director of NCBSC Music Department directed a clinic, presenting new Baptist Hymnal music and changed formats for graded series; information presented to churches for Desert Storm concerts.

December: Request from Norfolk International Airport Public Relations Officers for musicians to give concerts between December 17-23 for military forces and families accepted with responses; churches presented Christmas Music.

January: Children's Music Day Camp committee held initial meeting for 1991 camp, information sent out; handbell choir members attended clinics in Ahoskie and Greenville; October 1991, Regional Adult Choirc Festival at Ahoskie First Church

February: Music directors getting emphasis for activities in newsletter.

March: Organization of wind/brass ensemble with Dorothy Ruffin & Betsy Wiggins directing instrumentalists from Bethlehem, Center Grove, Holly Grove, Mars Hill and Powellsville churches.

April: Choir participation at Spring Meeting; Mr. Hugh Patterson, Minister of Music and Youth at Galatia Church presented as new regional music director, a state appointment replacing Mr. Don Gober who resides now in Alabama.

May: Associational Leadership Conference attended at Ridgecrest; music literature and other materials given out at fair during Associational Emphasis Week.

June: VBS music emphasis; final preparations made by youth, young adults and adults leading various activities at camp in July.

July: Children's Music Day Camp, July 8-12, Ahoskie First Church and Chowan College. Two hundred, fifty-eight children in grades 1-6 with one hundred leaders having different responsibilities leading them, thirty-one Baptist churches and four other represented for the "Best Yet" camp; 1991 offering $1,050.00 was divided among Mrs. Sue Todd for the China Project, S.A.F.E. House, Food Pantry and NC Baptist Children's Homes. "It's Cool in the Furnace," by Buryl Red and Grace Hawthorne. The 1992 date for the music day camp is July 6-10, 1992.

August: 1991 evaluation and initial meeting for 1992 camp with council formed for all music projects. Carrie Buck, Marion Bridgers, Terri Harris, Libby Tilson, Robbie Best, Jim Rogers, Tom Ruffin, Lemar Wheeler with ex-officio members DOM Lonnie Armstrong, Anna Belle Crouch, Hugh Patterson, assisted by Sally Ann Barber, Jo-Ann Mizelle and Judy Pierce; Mr. Neal Eller, associate director NCBSC music department led conference and fellowship for 1991-92 planning; keyboardists from association attended Regional Pedalpoint Clinic in Williamston.

September: Final preparations for Regional Adult Music Festival, Praise Sing II for state convention advertized; all music directors, singers, keyboardists, instrumentalists invited guest of Chowan College music faculty for Alexander Technique Workshop on movement performance.

Thank you for your commitment to service with music. All of you are appreciated. God Bless you.

Report of the Ordination Committee

The Ordination Committee of the West Chowan Baptist Association met on three occasions for the purpose of examining candidates for the Christian ministry.

On December 1, 1990, at the request of the Kelford Baptist Church the Committee met with Russell C. Rhodes who was serving as minister to the church.

On June 30, 1991, the Committee met, at the request of Galatia Baptist Church, to examine Hugh Patterson, Minister of Music at Galatia.

On September 19, 1991, at the request of the Elm Grove Baptist Church, the Committee met with their new pastor, Mark Chase.

In each instance the Committee questioned the candidate's call, education, gifts for ministry, and theological convictions.

At the conclusion of the questioning it was unanimously agreed that the candidates were "set for the defense of the gospel" and the Committee therefore recommended them for ordination.

Evangelism

It is with mixed emotions that I write the Evangelism Committee's report. After only three months into the new Associational year the committee had the misfortune of losing three of its six members to churches in other Associations. The committee's loss of manpower and expertise directly effected the accomplishment of its goals.

However, during the past year the Evangelism Committee was able to promote a two-pronged approach to evangelism: education and motivation. The committee, in cooperation with the Associational Sunday School Director, planned two book studies. On October 16th and 18th the book study, "Evangelism Through the Sunday School" was held at Union Baptist Church. The second book study was held at Aulander Baptist Church, January 29th and 31st, entitled "Every Christian's Job." Both studies had an average attendance of 23 and 15 respectively.

Also, on January 18th a prayer retreat was held for the upcoming Spring Revivals. Aulander, Cashie, Creech Memorial, Galatia and Meherrin Baptist Churches each were host churches for their area of the Association. These Prayer Retreats were in preparation for the Witness-Giving Life Revivals. Many churches from the Association participated in the Witness-Giving Life Revivals and book studies.

"Witness," the college age singing group sponsored by the Evangelism Department of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, performed a concert at Aulander Baptist Church. Over three hundred youth and adults were in attendance, representing 26 churches from the Association.

The committee is hard at work planning events for the upcoming year. Mark your calendar to attend the following:

February 2, 1992 - Evangelistic Rally, Chowan College, 7 PM
Reverend Robert Hamblin will be the speaker.
February 22, 1992 - Lay Evangelism School, 9 AM - 3 PM
Spring 1992 - Youth Evangelistic Rally
Summer 1992 - "Witness" Concert
Fall 1992 - Associational Wide Evangelistic Crusade

Churches are encouraged to plan to participate in these events and to offer suggestion of ways this committee can better serve the churches of the Association. Other activities will be planned to aid church leaders in preparing for revival. Take advantage of these opportunities to pray together, plan together and learn from each other as we commit ourselves to the joyous task of introducing others to our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Respectfully Submitted,
Robbie Best
Director of Evangelism

Committee on Family and Christian Social Ministries

We the members of the Committee on Family and Christian Social Ministries recognize the work being done by the Churches of the West Chowan Baptist Association and wish to highlight several concerns that sought our hearing. . .

> We applaud the work being done with families in economic distress and encourage each local church to address this continuing need to respond to emergency assistance calls.

We appreciate the heavy burden of rising medication costs and are concerned for those individuals on fixed incomes that must make difficult decisions when they have insufficient resources to purchase needed medications and wish to encourage more of our churches to recognize this opportunity for ministry.

We are thankful for the ministry to abused families that is being provided by S.A.F.E. and encourage greater local church participation with them.

We remember our Lord's admonition to feed the hungry and are thankful for the Food Pantry ministries in Hertford and Northampton Counties and hope to see another developed soon in Bertie County. We wish to encourage continued support from our churches.

We are encouraged by the continuing efforts of local churches of the West Chowan Baptist Association to develop ministries to the Developmentally Disabled individuals that seek to learn more of Christ.

Our budgeted funds have been shared according to these concerns.

Building & Ground Committee

Your House and Grounds Committee has been at work throughout the Associational year. The parking area and the driveways to the Association office were paved at the cost of $5,387.40. The care of the grounds to the association was contracted to Tri-Co Landscape Materials this year.

At the present time, the Association home at Aulander is being rented for $300 a month.

North Carolina Baptist Hospital

The year 1991 is significant in the history of Baptist Hospital - it marks the 50th anniversary of its entering a partnership with the Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest University, to form one of the 126 academic medical centers in the nation. Appropriate events have been planned to celebrate this anniversary.

This partnership makes it possible for Baptist Hospital to offer it's patients the most advanced technology for diagnosing and treating their health problems. For example, ours is one of 15 medical centers in the nation involved in clinical trials of a new coronary laser which vaporizes plaque in blocked coronary arteries. We are one of five centers in the U.S. conducting clinical trials in stereotactic radiosurgery, a procedure in which high-energy beams of radiation from a linear accelerator are focused by computers on brain tumors and lesions to destroy them. This procedure can be done on an outpatient basis. We are one of 24 Comprehensive Cancer Centers in the nation. We are the designated organ procurement agency for northwest North Carolina, and we recently received approval to begin performing pancreatic transplants this year. Early in 1992, we expect to open our new Center for Positron Emission Tomography, one of the most advanced radiological services which is capable of measuring the chemical structure of the body. This new diagnostic procedure promises to make possible earlier detection, and hence, earlier treatment of tumors, hopefully, improving the outcome of the treatment.

During the past year, the hospital admitted approximately 22,000 patients, and almost 400,000 persons were treated through the various outpatient services of the Medical Center. These patients came from most counties in North Carolina, from 32 other states, and from several other countries.

During the past year, Baptist Hospital was re-accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Health Care Organizations, and the survey ranked it in the top 10 percent of hospitals in the nation. According to a recent report from the N.C. Medical Database Commission, average charges for care at Baptist Hospital are 10 percent below the average charges for similar diagnoses in hospitals statewide, and substantially lower than charges in the other North Carolina academic medical centers.

The Pastoral Care Department, which is funded in part through the Cooperative Program, provided Clinical Pastoral Education to 42 students during the past year. The Pastoral Care staff provided more then 54,000 specific ministries to hospital patients, family members, and staff. And, the counseling division provided over 21,700 counseling sessions.

For the first time since 1978, a Mother's Day Offering exclusively for Baptist Hospital Benevolent Care was received in North Carolina Baptist Churches. The staff and patients at Baptist Hospital are profoundly grateful to North Carolina Baptists for this support.

BCH Gives Children a Chance!

For an institution that's 106 years old, Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina (BCH) looks strongly to the future!

Three pillars that uphold that futuristic foundation are: 1) The return of the Thanksgiving Offering beginning in November 1991; 2) The success of our "Give a child a chance!" financial campaign, and 3) Baptists' continued support of BCH through the Cooperative Program.

This financial undergirding made it possible for BCH to serve more than 1,200 children and families last year through facilities at 13 locations across the state. Because Baptists cared enough to give, residents like Lynn will go to Wingate College this fall; Chris graduated from UNC-Chapel Hill; Jennifer is in her second year at Haywood Community College and Mark earned a football scholarship to North Carolina A & T. Each of these lives proceeds on firm footing because Baptist Children's Homes was there to pave their pathway.

Most BCH residents come from dysfunctional families where a single parent, most often a mother, simply is unable to care for her children. Her frustration with life leads to limitless freedom for the children, which leads to troubling behavior. Physical abuse, divorce, alcohol, drugs and truancy mark their young lives.

Baptist Children's Homes provides a safe environment where children learn to name their problems and address them to change behavior. At the same time, willing family members also are addressing their problems with the help of BCH social workers. In many cases, children and families are restored.

BCH's "Give a child a chance!" campaign is raising $11 million over three years to expand Cameron Boys Camp, boost general operating income and increase endowment. Gifts and pledges through July totaled $9.3 million and response across the state has been overwhelming and heart gratifying.

Last year Baptist Men of North Carolina helped construct the new Tommy and Jeanie Eller Chuckwagon at Cameron Boys Camp that was dedicated May 19.

BCH celebrated this spring the 20th anniversary of the founding of Broyhill Home, our western-most campus, in Waynesville/Clyde. With the help of J.E. Broyhill and his family, the home was opened in 1971 on 91 hilly acres. It has capacity for 48 children in group care and for eight girls in emergency care.

In August 1990 BCH began the Gregg Children's Center for before and after school care. The Davidson County program offers security to children of working couples, who now don't have to go home to empty houses.

Children's hopes the world over have been bolstered by the 1991 return of the Thanksgiving Offering voted by messengers to the 1989 state convention. While suffering through its 13-year absence, BCH lost more than $2 million in potential gifts. Our goal this year is $500,000. Becuase of a partnership established in December with the Baptist Children's Homes of Sao Paulo, Brazil, BCH-North Carolina will donate 10 percent of everything it receives over the $500,000 goal for work in that desperately needy land.

In August 1990, BCH signed an agreement with Gaston County Department of Social Services to operate two emergency care homes owned by the county. That raises to seven the number of emergency care homes BCH oeprates. Emergency care, in which a child at risk of abuse or neglect can receive shelter right away, is the service most in demand throughout the state. Children stay a maximum of 60 days while BCH works with the custodian to determine a long-term plan of care.

The Cooperative Program continues to anchor our budget planning from the churches. We urge renewed commitment to cooperative giving among our North Carolina churches. It is essential, not only for us, but for the entire missions enterprise built painstakingly for a century and a half. Baptist Children's Homes receives $1.5 million from Cooperative Program receipts each year. This is the stackpole around which we build our other income planning. A decrease in Cooperative Program dollars to Baptist Children's Homes would seriously jeopardize our ability to care for children.

Baptist Children's Homes has a 106-year history. But its history is just the knot that ties it to a boundless, unbroken ribbon of promise that stretches beyond the future to wrap children and families with eternal blessings.

Michael C. Blackwell, President

Baptist Retirement Homes of North Carolina, Inc.

1991: Making Life for Older Adults the Best of Times

The Baptist Retirement Homes of North Carolina, Inc. operates four residential facilities for Older Adults around the State — Albemarle Baptist Home in the Southern Piedmont, the Western North Carolina Baptist Home in Asheville, the Hamilton Baptist Home in Eastern North Carolina, and the Brookridge Retirement Community in Winston-Salem.

In Asheville, 1991 began with a great deal of excitement. After more than five years of trying to receive state approval to build a nursing care bed addition, the Baptist Retirement Homes was awarded a Certificate of Need for 100 medicaid certified nursing care beds for its Western North Carolina Baptist Home on Richmond Hill in Northwest Asheville. Currently the only nursing care provided by the Baptist Retirement Homes is the 85 bed nursing care unit at the Brookridge Retirement Community in Winston-Salem. The addition of 100 medicaid certified beds will mean that quality nursing care can be offered to Western North Carolina Baptists regardless of their ability to pay for the institutional services that they need.

The 39,000 square foot addition will cost approximately $2.8 million. At the present time, the Baptist Retirement Homes has raised approximately $2 million of the $2.8 million needed to make this long hoped for dream a reality. Baptists across Western North Carolina are being urged to help Baptist Retirement Homes meet the financial challenge of building this new unit on Richmond Hill.

In Winston-Salem, the Brookridge Retirement Community completed its second year of operation. Under the leadership of a well-trained and committed Christian staff, the Brookridge Retirement Community's Independent Living area and Health Care Unit are considered among the finest in the state.

In Albemarle and Hamilton, Assisted Living care is provided to Older Adults in residential settings. The Albemarle and Hamilton facilities offer quality care to Older Adults regardless of their ability to pay for the cost of the care they receive. . .a service unmatched by any other church related long-term care institution in this state.

Please support our ministry with your prayers and financial resources. Help us make life for Baptist Older Adults. . .The Best of Times!

Baptist College Report — 1991

A "new-old" event is about to take place in North Carolina Baptist life: A Special Committee!

From time to time we Baptists feel the need to take a hard look at ourselves. We do that through the time-honored practice of asking trusted people to serve on a committee for a year, sometimes two. In 1956, for example, "The Committee of Twenty-Five" began a comprehensive study which eventually embraced all aspects of North Carolina Baptist life. That committee reported to a special session of the Baptist State Convention called for that purpose on May 5-6, 1959. Again, "The Committee of Twenty," appointed in 1967, worked for two years before presenting its comprehensive findings and recommendatons to the Convention in November of 1969. Both of these committees provided clarity and guidance for North Carolina Baptists which endured for many years.

New times call for a fresh look at ourselves. The "new times" which have taken shape in the Southern Baptist Convention since 1979 have particular relevance for institutions, agencies, their trustees and the Convention. North Carolina Baptist institutions and agencies have rendered distinguished Christian service for a total of 1,108 years! New times call for a new look by a competent special committee.

In May the General Board approved a 17-member "Institutions Relations Committee." Lamar Brooks, Wilmington, is chairman. Other members are: Jean P. Abernethy, Marian; Dot Allred, Gastonia; Curtis Lee Barbery, Bennett; Harold Bennett, Boone; Don Bolden, Burlington; Caralie Brown, Raleigh; Kathryn H. Hamrick, Shelby; John H. Hewett, Asheville; Milton A. Hollifield, Jr., Stanley; John M. Hough, Jr., Salisbury; James H. Johnson, Candler; Robert B. Poole, Elizabeth City; George W. Pullium, Jr., Knightdale; Hobart Smith, Charlotte, A. Eugene Warren, Charlotte; J.L. Wilson, Winston-Salem. Their report is due in November, 1992.

The "new-old" way of study and thought is the North Carolina Baptist, tried-and-true way to confront changing times. We thank these 17 good men and women who will help us to shape the future together in harmony. They request and deserve our fervent prayers.

1991 North Carolina Baptist Foundation

The Board of Directors and the staff of the North Carolina Baptist Foundation are committed to effective leadership in generating increased perpetual financial support of Baptist causes throughout the state, nation and world. With assets approximately $27 million (market value) at the end of the 1990 fiscal year, the income distribution to Baptist causes is significant each year.

Typically, assets are either held as endowments paying interest income in perpetuity to named Baptist causes, or they are held in trust with current income being paid to individuals and future income being paid to Baptist causes in perpetuity.

Earned income distributed to Baptist institutions and mission causes during fiscal year of 1990:	$647,180
Earned income distributed to individuals with Baptist causes named as charitable remainderman during fiscal year of 1990:	$686,124

The staff of the Foundation consists of seven full time employees and two persons who provide part-time service in accounting and legal services. The servicing of individual accounts requires continuous contact with trustors, donors and those designating gifts through Wills. The increased number of requests for assistance in seminars and conferences by churches, associations and individuals has made part-time assistance necessary in regions of the state some distance from the office.

There are continual improvements being made in available charitable estate planning computer software, constant changes in state and federal regulations which affect charitable estate planning and an increased need for technical training and assistance to serve the ever increasing needs of both the development staffs of our institutions and the individuals utilizing the Foundation services. The Foundation continues to provide for these needs to maximize the growth in financial support for Baptist causes.

In 1990, the Foundation moved into a new home. The 6,000 square foot office building was constructed from gifts from individuals and is located on property provided by the Baptist State Convention next to the Baptist Building in Cary. The new facility was occupied in February 1990 and provides much needed space for the work of staff as well as for conferences and meetings. Baptist groups are invited to use the meeting rooms when in the Raleigh/Cary area. We extend an invitation to church groups to call and arrange a visit to the newest building used for the Lord's service by North Carolina Baptists.

Respectfully submitted,
Edwin S. Coates
Executive Director

Christian Action League of North Carolina, Inc.

This has been a most eventful year for the cause of Applied Christianity.

With North Carolina facing a 1.1 billion dollar shortfall and with news accounts stating that citizens from North Carolina are spending 100 million dollars annually in the Virginia lottery, it appeared almost inevitable that a lottery bill would pass the 1991 legislative session.

In addition to the economic factors, the gambling industry had 13 lobbyists working the halls of the Legislature daily promoting lottery legislation.

Even though lottery legislation passed the Senate, it was quite evident that the lottery lobbyists could not line up enough votes to get the measure through the House of Representatives. Lottery supporters did not push for a vote, for they knew that the legislation would be dead. Therefore, the proposal will be eligible to be considered in the next legislative session when it convenes in June, 1992.

Between now and then, it is most important that you secure a commitment from your representatives in the North Carolina House to oppose state-sponsored gambling. The Senate will not be voting on the lottery in 1992 because it has already passed that body.

Key lottery supporters were Senator Ken Royall (D-Durham), Senator George Daniels (D-Caswell), Representative David Redwine (D-Brunswick), Representative Joe Mavretic (D-Edgecombe), Representative Robert Hunter (D-McDowell) and Representative Frank Rhodes (R-Forsyth).

Opponents of the legislation were led by Governor Jim Martin, Lieutenant Governor Jim Gardner, Senate President Pro-Tem Henson Barnes (D-Wayne), and Speaker of the House Dan Blue (D-Wake).

While we were successful in side-tracking lottery legislation, the Legislature refused to enact the following proposals:

1. PARENTAL CONSENT: North Carolina remains one of the few states in the nation that allows a minor to receive an abortion without parental consent. Legislation to enact parental consent passed the House, but died in the Senate.
2. DRUNK DRIVING: The House passed legislation that would change the alcohol blood level from .1 to .08 as the breathalyzer standard for Driving-While-Impaired. The Senate refused to act on this proposal.

3. OPEN CONTAINERS OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES IN MOTOR VEHICLES: It is ironic that an open liquor bottle is prohibited in a motor vehicle, yet there is no limit to the number of open beer containers allowed in a motor vehicle. Highway safety authorities confirm that a large majority of the drivers charged with driving-while-impaired are beer drinkers. N.C. Highway Patrol officials endorsed the open container legislation, but it got "hung up" in a House committee.

4. TEEN AGE PREGNANCIES: In order to address this growing problem, legislation was introduced to require sexual abstinence instruction to be a part of the curriculum of our public schools. (Such instruction has been very successful in reducing teen-age pregnancies in other areas of our country.) However, such a program was opposed by our N.C. Department of Public Instruction. Education officials charged that such legislation would be imposing a standard of morality upon our youth. The measure simply stated: "The public school curriculum shall include instruction, in appropriate grades and classes, that abstinence from sexual activity outside of marriage is the expected standard for all school age children, that abstinence from sexual activity is the only certain means of avoiding out-of-wedlock pregnancy, sexually transmitted diseases, including AIDS, and other associated health problems; and that a mutually faithful monogamous relationship in the context of marriage is the best lifelong means of avoiding sexually transmitted diseases, including AIDS."

5. ABORTION FUND: North Carolina is the only Southeastern state that used state funds for medically unnecessary abortions. Some $400,000 of state tax funds have been budgeted by the state legislature to pay for these elective abortions. Therefore, we are denying thousands of babies right here in North Carolina their constitutional right of life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness.

How can we turn the tide on these important moral issues? It will occur when North Carolina Baptists and other Christians are willing to become actively and publicly involved in upholding our Judeo-Christian moral standards. It is not enough just to wring our hands and just talk about the problems. We need to cry out publicly and act against sin. Baptists need to be informed about the stands taken on these issues by those who are running for public office, and then vote for those who reflect our standards.

In addition to a demanding legislative session, the Christian Action League has successfully assisted several counties and municipalities in liquor, beer, and wine referendums.

Good Government Seminars were conducted in the Asheville and Wilmington areas, at which some of the above issues were addressed. Nationally recognized authorities came to share their expertise on the issues of gambling and family matters. These included Dr. Paul Cameron, Chairman of the Family Research Institute, Washington, D.C., Austin McGuigan, former State's Attorney for Connecticut, and Bill Swindell, National Field Director, American Family Association, Tupelo, Mississippi.

We praise God for your prayer and financial support as we join in addressing moral and ethical issues facing our society.

The Biblical Recorder

The Baptist world is changing rapidly; some would contend it is for good while others think it is nothing short of a tragedy.

Whatever one's view may be, there is an indispensable need for correct and reliable information. The Biblical Recorder was born and continues to serve for that purpose.

People are reading less than any time in recent history. It is true of secular publications, it is true of wholesome books from respected libraries, it is true of religious publications. We live in an electronic, fast-food, everything is disposable age! We often think we know the answers only to discover later we do not.

An informed Baptist is a better Baptist; an uninformed Baptist may be an uninvolved or disruptive Baptist. No democracy, including our local churches and the denomination they comprise, can survive long without an informed, involved constituency which makes corporate decisions based upon accurate information from reliable sources.

The most important thing facing us at this point is to get the Recorder into more Baptist homes than ever before. Your support as a subscriber and reader and your encouragement to others will enable the paper to better serve the constituency with accurate and helpful information delivered to Baptist homes and churches. We need your help!

In order to save churches large amounts of money and to increase the readership of the Recorder, Church News Service (CNS) was launched in 1990. This system lets any congregation have their church newsletter incorporated into the Biblical Recorder which saves staff time, postage and printing costs. Usually, for less than what it costs to produce the church newsletter, CNS gives the entire Baptist communication package to each family in the congregation. We are steadily adding churches to the CNS program.

The paper focuses more and more attention on North Carolina Baptists with news, features and inspirational articles which will encourage individuals and churches in their witness and ministry.

Never has God given Baptists a greater opportunity; never have there been as many difficulties and obstacles to overcome. One sure way to conquer problems and overcome the barriers to effective witness and ministry is to have the facts, know the issues and be adequately informed.

That is why the Recorder was born; that is why it serves today. For more information on how your church can subscribe or use CNS, contact:

West Chowan History (Continued)

Elmer Lee Joyner

This history continues before the last paragraph on page 15 of A History of West Chowan Baptist Association 1882-1983.

The association celebrated its centennial at the Helms Center, Chowan College in October, 1983, where a brief history entitled "These First 100 Years" was read by the Reverend Elmer Joyner, a member of the history committee who had earlier written A Historical Sketch of The West Chowan Baptist Association which had been combined with histories and pictures of all the churches making up West Chowan compiled by the history committee. Dr. Forrest C. Freezor brought the message at the centennial celebration. A report was also received showing that when all the labor and material for the West Virginia Project was tabulated, around $36,000 had been given.

A devastating tornado ripped through a residential area in the Lewiston-Woodville community in March, 1984 to which our churches responded with several thousand dollars of aid and collections. The Missions Committee coordinated much of the aid to the victims including the use of the Disaster Van and $50,000 in relief funds from the Baptist State Convention. Floor plans were adopted that same year for the association office which would be erected on a .7 acre lot on Jersey Street, Ahoskie. The lot was graciously donated by Mrs. Odom Newsome. Also the mobile unit that had been in use at Rich Square camp for migrant workers was given back to the Baptist State Convention because the camp had closed. The state convention set the unit up in a mobile home park in Franklinton to be used for a chapel.

The Bertie Union Meeting, an old carry-over from the Kehukee Association, was dissolved by the General Board in 1985 and replaced with the Spring Meeting of the West Chowan Association. Also three mission trips were taken that same year. Mrs. Billy Harris went to Togo; Mrs. William Lawrence journeyed to Jamaica, and Harry Ward helped construct a church in England.

The Director of Missions, Henry Powell, resigned effective at the end of 1986. A Search Committee was formed and a revised job description for the DOM was adopted. The new associational office was completed. At the spring meeting, Dr. Hargus Taylor, Chowan College, read "A Brief Historical Sketch of the Bertie Union Meeting"in which he outlined how the meeting came into being and traced it through the years until its demise in 1985. A copy of this important research is in the 1986 Annual.

A call rang out from the spring meeting in 1987 asking each church to given an additional $200 so that the associational office could be dedicated debt free. That fall, due to the resignation of the moderator-elect and the vice moderator declining, the association took a historical step and elected Corene Harris as the first woman moderator of the West Chowan Association. Also Nathan Copeland, III, moderator, recognizing the commitment of Rev. Lemar Wheeler, who had donated so many Fridays and Saturdays as building chairman to see the completion of the associational office, called for and received the messengers' unanimous support for naming the large meeting room in the building, "The Lemar Wheeler Room." On January 5, 1987 a dinner honoring Rev. and Mrs. Henry Powell, the out-going DOM, was given along with a love offering from the churches. The Rev. Lonnie Armstrong was installed as the new Director of Missions. That same year, Wayland Lawrence Jenkins, Jr. very generously gave the association a home in Aulander, valued at $82,900 to be used as the residence for the DOM. The association also elected a long range Strategic Planning Committee to plan the next five years.

In 1988 our association entered a partnership with Brazil. The dedication of the Association Office Building was conducted on May 22, 1988. The Missions Development Committee reported that the Rev. Phillip Knott, Rev. Tim Goins, and Sue Todd, had all been financially aided to conduct preaching missions in Antigua and Trinidad, and to teach for a year in China.

Dr. Jerry Jackson, new president of Chowan College was formally introduced at the fall meeting, 1989. Because of an alarming and growing tendency of staff dismissals throughout Southern Baptist Convention, our association added a Pastor-Church Relations Committee to the constitution to help counsel hurting churches and pastors. Also the Executive Promotion Committee agreed to sell the associational home in Aulander and use the proceeds for a housing allowance for the Director of Missions. Miss Anna Belle Crouch led a short but successful campaign to get a piano for the association meeting room.

The associational brotherhood led an effort to raise the rest of the funds needed to pave the parking lot at the associational office as the group's 1990 project. Following a report of the financial plight of some of our retired pastors, an offering was taken by the messengers at the fall meeting and $671.76 was given to a needy annuitant. Billy Nale, Henry Boshen, Joe and Betsy McLean were some of the West Chowaners to do mission work in Brazil. The association raised more than $17,000.00 for relief of the victims of Hurricane Hugo that almost leveled Charleston, S.C. and even did extensive damage as far inland as Charlotte, N.C. Anna Belle Crouch was remembered prayerfully and helped financially with expenses for her English teaching mission to China.

NAME

MEMBERSHIP

Article 2. It shall be composed of messengers elected by the churches connected with this body and all ordained ministers who are pastors of said churches, together with the officers of this Association and chairmen of all standing committees. Each church of 100 members and under shall be entitled to two messengers and for each additional 100 members an additional messenger provided that no church shall have more than 10 messengers.

PURPOSE

Article 3. The purpose of this Association shall be to inspire, encourage and enlist its membership in a spirit of brotherly love and cooperation for the promotion of the entire program of our denomination; to the end that the gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ might be proclaimed with greater power and effectiveness in our Association, our State and Nation, and unto the uttermost part of the world.

POWERS AND PREROGATIVES

Article 4. The Association shall have no power to infringe upon the sovereignty or rights of the churches. It is neither an ecclesiastical nor legislative council, nor a court of appeal. It may advise the churches and recommend measures of usefulness for their adoption, but cannot bind them in any way. There shall be full recognition of the autonomy of the local church and there shall be full recognition of the autonomy of the Association. However, in view of the combined wisdom, piety and intelligence of the Association, it justly claims the very highest consideration and regard for itself, its objects and its recommendations.

Article 5. Any Baptist church in good standing approving the design, objects and principles of this Association, and holding the same doctrine and ordinances, may be admitted into fellowship upon two-thirds vote of the messengers. All applications shall be referred to the Membership Committee for study. Churches desiring membership should give notice by making application one year in advance.

Article 6. The Association may dissolve its relation with any church that consistently refuses to support the design, objects and principles of the West Chowan Baptist Association. Any irregularities which are reported shall be referred to the Membership Committee who will report their finds to the Fall Associational Meeting. The relationship may be dissolved by a two-thirds vote of the messengers one year after irregularities have been brought to the attention of the association.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES

Article 7. Every church will be requested to contribute a percentage of its gifts, or so much per resident member for defraying the expenses of the Association and for direction of the promotional education and missionary work of the Association. This percentage or amount shall be sent to the Associational Treasurer monthly by each church treasurer.

Article 8. Every church will send to every annual session of the Association a letter on the form adopted by the Association with such additional information as it may deem fitting.

Article 9. Any church wishing to dissolve its relationship the Association in order to transfer to another association may do so with a majority vote at any regular Associational meeting.

ORGANIZATION

Article 10. The officers of this Association shall be a Moderator, a Vice-Moderator, a Clerk, a Treasurer, a Parliamentarian, a Director of Sunday School, a Director of Discipleship Training, a Director of Brotherhood, a Director of Woman's Missionary Union, a Director of Music, a Director of Missions Development, a Director of Stewardship Development, a Director of Evangelism, a Director of Pastor/Church Relations, a Director of Family and Christian Social Ministries, a Director of Seminary Extension and a Director of Youth. They shall be elected at the Spring Session. The term of all officers shall commence at the conclusion of the Fall Session and continue until their successors are elected in the Spring Session and are ready to take office at the conclusion of the Fall Session.

DUTIES

Article 11. It shall be the duty of the Moderator to open meetings punctually at the appointed time; to enforce the rules; to enforce order and to exercise all prerogatives of a presiding officer according to Robert's Rules of Order.

Article 12. It shall be the duty of the Vice-Moderator to perform the duties of the Moderator in his absence.

Article 13. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to attend and keep a full record of the meetings of the Association and to compile, edit and distribute to the churches the minutes and data from the church letters in an annual report. He may appoint an assistant when necessary. He shall be paid such honorarium and expenses as the Association directs.

It will be the duty of the committee to keep a check on the building and grounds to see that they are kept in a good state of repairs and recommend improvements that need to be made. Minor things and emergencies may be taken care of by the chairman in consultation with the Director of Missions. Major things must be dealt with in the committee and come as a recommendation to the Associational Council and Executive Promotion Committee.

Article 32. Any regulation prior to this constitution which conflicts herewith is hereby repealed.

Article 33. Baptist Faith and Message statement.

I. THE SCRIPTURES

The Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired and is the record of God's revelation of Himself to man. It is a perfect treasure of divine instruction. It has God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth, without any mixture or error, for its matter. It reveals the principles by which God judges us; and therefore is, and will remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and religious opinions should be tried. The criterion by which the Bible is to be interpreted is Jesus Christ.

II. GOD

There is one and only one living and true God. He is an intelligent, spiritual, and personal Being, the Creator, Redeemer, Preserver, and Ruler of the universe. God is infinite in holiness and all other perfections. To Him we owe the highest love, reverence, and obedience. The eternal God reveals Himself to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being.

A. God the Father

God as Father reigns with providential care over His universe, His creatures, and the flow of the stream of human history according to the purposes of His grace. He is all powerful, all loving, and all wise. God is Father in truth to those who become children of God through faith in Jesus Christ. He is fatherly in His attitude toward all men.

B. God the Son

Christ is the eternal Son of God. In His incarnation as Jesus Christ, he was conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. Jesus perfectly revealed and did the will of God, taking upon Himself the demands and necessities of human nature and identifying Himself completely with mankind yet without sin. He honored the divine law by His personal obedience, and in His death on the cross, He made provision for the redemption of men from sin. He was raised from the dead with a glorified body and appeared to His disciples as the person who was with them before His crucifixion. He ascended into heaven and is now exalted at the right hand of God where He is the One Mediator, partaking of the nature of God and of man, and in whose Person is effected the reconciliation between God and man. He will return in power and glory to judge the world and to consummate His redemptive mission. He now dwells in all believers as the living and ever present Lord.

C. God the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God. He inspired holy men of old to write the Scriptures. Through illumination, He enables men to understand truth. He exalts Christ. He convicts of sin, of righteousness and of judgment. He calls men to the Saviour, and effects regeneration. He cultivates Christian character, comforts believers, and bestows the spiritual gifts by which they serve God through His church. He seals the believer unto the day of final redemption. His presence in the Christian is the assurance of God to bring the believer into the fulness of the stature of Christ. He enlightens and empowers the believer and the church in worship, evangelism, and service.

III. MAN

Man was created by the special act of God, in His own image, and is the crowning work of His creation. In the beginning, man was innocent of sin and was endowed by His Creator with freedom of choice. By his free choice, man sinned against God and brought sin into the human race. Through the temptation of Satan, man transgressed the command of God and fell from his original innocence; whereby his posterity inherit a nature and an environment inclined toward sin, and as soon as they are capable of moral action become transgressors and are under condemnation. Only the grace of God can bring man into His holy fellowship and enable man to fulfill the creative purpose of God. The sacredness of human personality is evident in that God created man in His own image, and in that Christ died for man; therefore, every man possesses dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love.

IV. SALVATION

Salvation involves the redemption of the whole man, and is offered freely to all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, who by His own blood obtained eternal redemption for the believer. In its broadest sense, salvation includes regeneration, sanctification, and glorification.

A. Regeneration, or the new birth, is a work of God's grace whereby believers become new creatures of Christ Jesus. It is a change of heart wrought by the Holy Spirit through conviction of sin, to which the sinner responds in repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Repentance and faith are inseparable experiences of grace. Repentance is a genuine turning from sin toward God. Faith is the acceptance of Jesus Christ and commitment of the entire personality to Him as Lord and Saviour. Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal upon principles of His righteousness of all sinners who repent and believe in Christ. Justification brings the believer into a relationship of peace and favor with God.

B. Sanctification is the experience, beginning in regeneration, by which the believer is set apart to God's purposes, and is enabled to progress toward moral and spiritual perfection through the presence and power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in him. Growth in grace should continue throughout the regenerate person's life.

C. Glorification is the culmination of salvation and is the final blessed and abiding state of the redeemed.

V. GOD'S PURPOSE OF GRACE

Election is the gracious purpose of God, according to which He regenerates, sanctifies, and glorifies sinners. It is consistent with the free agency of man, and comprehends all the means in connection with the end. It is glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, and is infinitely wise, holy, and unchangeable. It excludes boasting and promotes humility.

All true believers endure to the end. Those whom God has accepted in Christ, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never fall away from the state of grace, but shall preserve to the end. Believers may fall into sin and through neglect and temptation, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, bring reproach on the cause of Christ, and temporal judgments on themselves, yet they shall be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

VI. THE CHURCH

A New Testament church of the Lord Jesus Christ is a local body of baptized believers who are associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the gospel, observing the two ordinances of Christ, committed to His teachings, exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word, and seeking to extend the gospel to the ends of the earth.

This church is an autonomous body, operating through democratic processes under the Lordship of Jesus Christ. In such a congregation, members are equally responsible. Its Scriptural officers are pastors and deacons.

The New Testament speaks also of the church as the body of Christ which includes all of the redeemed of all the ages.

VII. BAPTISM AND THE LORD'S SUPPER

Christian baptism is the immersion of a believer in water in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is an act of obedience symbolizing the believer's faith in a crucified, buried, and risen Saviour, the believer's death to sin, the burial of the old life, and resurrection to walk in newness of life in Christ Jesus. It is a testimony to his faith in the final resurrection of the dead. Being a church ordinance, it is prerequisite to the privileges of church membership and to the Lord's Supper.

The Lord's Supper is a symbolic act of obedience whereby members of the church, through partaking of the bread and the fruit of the vine, memorialize the death of the Redeemer and anticipate His second coming.

VIII. THE LORD'S DAY

The first day of the week is the Lord's Day. It is a Christian institution for regular observance. It commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the dead and should be employed in exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private, and by refraining from worldly amusements, and resting from secular employments, work of necessity and mercy only being excepted.

IX. THE KINGDOM

The Kingdom of God includes both His general sovereignty over the universe and His particular kingship over men who willfully acknowledge Him as King. Particularly the Kingdom is the realm of salvation into which men enter by trustful, childlike commitment to Jesus Christ. Christians ought to pray and to labor that the Kingdom may come and God's will be done on earth. The full consummation of the Kingdom awaits the return of Jesus Christ and the end of this age.

X. LAST THINGS

God, in His own time and in His own way, will bring the world its appropriate end. According to His promise, Jesus Christ will return personally and visibly in glory to the earth; the dead will be raised; and Christ will judge all men in righteousness. The unrighteous will be consigned to Hell, the place of everlasting punishment. The righteous in their resurrected and glorified bodies will receive their reward and will dwell forever in Heaven with the Lord.

XI. EVANGELISM AND MISSIONS

It is the duty and privilege of every follower of Christ and of every church of the Lord Jesus Christ to endeavor to make disciples of all nations. The new birth of man's spirit by God's Holy Spirit means the birth of love for others. Missionary effort on the part of all rests thus upon a spiritual necessity of the regenerate life, and is expressly and repeatedly commanded in the teachings of Christ. It is the duty of every child of God to seek constantly to win the lost to Christ by personal effort and by all other methods in harmony with the gospel of Christ.

XII. EDUCATION

The cause of education in the Kingdom of Christ is to coordinate with the causes of missions and general benevolence, and should receive along with these, the liberal support of the churches. An adequate system of Christian schools is necessary to a complete spiritual program for Christ's people.

In Christian education, there should be a proper balance between academic freedom and academic responsibility. Freedom in any orderly relationship of human life is always limited and never absolute. The freedom of a teacher in a Christian school, college, or seminary is limited by the preeminence of Jesus Christ, by the authoritative nature of the Scripture, and by the distinct purpose for which the school exists.

XIII. STEWARDSHIP

God is the source of all blessings, temporal and spiritual; all that we have and are, we owe to Him. Christians have a spiritual debtorship to the whole world, a holy trusteeship in the gospel, and a binding stewardship in their possessions. They are therefore under the obligation to serve Him with their time, talents, and material possessions; and should recognize all these as entrusted to them to use for the glory of God and for helping others. According to the Scriptures, Christians should contribute of their means cheerfully, regularly, systematically, proportionately, and liberally for the advancement of the Redeemer's cause on earth.

XIV. COOPERATION

Christ's people should, as occasion requires, organize such associations and conventions as may best secure cooperation for the great objects of the Kingdom of God. Such organizations have no authority over one another or over the churches. They are voluntary and advisory bodies designed to elicit, combine, and direct the energies of our people in the most effective manner. Members of New Testament churches should cooperate with one another in carrying forward the missionary, educational, and benevolent ministries for the extension of Christ's Kingdom. Christian unity in the New Testament sense is spiritual harmony and voluntary cooperation for common ends by various groups of Christ's people. Cooperation is desirable between the various Christian denominations, when the end to be attained is itself justified, and when such cooperation involves no violation of conscience or compromise of loyalty to Christ and His Word as revealed in the New Testament.

XV. THE CHRISTIAN AND THE SOCIAL ORDER

Every Christian is under obligation to seek to make the will of Christ supreme in his own life and in human society. Means and methods used for the improvement of society and the establishment of righteousness among men can be truly and permanently helpful only when they are rooted in the regeneration of the individual by the saving grace of God in Christ Jesus. The Christian should oppose in the spirit of Christ every form of greed, selfishness, and vice. He should work to provide for the orphaned, the needy, the aged, the helpless, and the sick. Every Christian should seek to bring industry, government, and society as a whole under the sway of the principles of righteousness, truth, and brotherly love. In order to promote these ends, Christians should be ready to work with all men of good will in any good cause, always being careful to act in the spirit of love without compromising their loyalty to Christ and His truth.

XVI. PEACE AND WAR

It is the duty of Christians to seek peace with all men on principles of righteousness. In accordance with the spirit and teachings of Christ, they should do all in their power to put an end to war.

The true remedy for the war spirit is the gospel of our Lord. The supreme need of the world is the acceptance of His teachings in all the affairs of men and nations, and the practical application of His law of love.

XVII. RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

God alone is Lord of the conscience, and He has left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are contrary to His Word or not contained in it. Church and state should be separate. The state owes to every church protection and full freedom in the pursuit of its spiritual ends. In providing for such freedom, no ecclesiastical group or denomination should be favored by the state more than others. Civil government being ordained of God, it is the duty of Christians to render loyal obedience thereto in all things not contrary to the revealed will of God. The church should not resort to the civil power to carry on its work. The gospel of Christ contemplates spiritual means alone for the pursuit of its ends. The state has no right to impose penalties for religious opinions of any kind. The state has no right to impose taxes for the support of any form of religion. A free church in a free state is the Christian ideal, and this implies the right of free and unhindered access to God on the part of all men, and the right to form and propagate opinions in the sphere of religion without interference by the civil power.

24. The 1992-93 calendar was adopted.
25. Rev. Jim Lambert, Baptist State Convention worker, gave an annuity report. He said the church that helps the pastor with annuity, now if the church pays $450 per resident member to the cooperative program, the annuity board will match dollar for dollar to pay for each church member who has worked for three months.
26. The hymn "Hark, The Voice of Jesus Calling" was sung by the congregation.
27. Scripture and prayer by Mrs. Jean Armstrong.
28. The hymns "Jesus Shall Reign" and "The Lord is My Shepherd" was sung by the Jackson Choir.
29. Rev. Lonnie Armstrong introduced the evening speakers, Dr. and Mrs. (Evelyn) Ronald Hill, missionaries who retired from Thailand after 40 years.
30. The missionary message was given by Ronald and Evelyn Hill. They said the only regret they had was they were not among the group of new missionaries commissioned the week before, that they may go back and start all over again. Their challenge was to be missionaries wherever they may be and to pray for those on the mission field.
31. The hymn "Take My Life and Let It Be" was sung by the congregation.
32. Benediction.

WEDNESDAY MORNING SESSION
October 2, 1992
MURFREESBORO BAPTIST CHURCH

33. A musical prelude was presented by Ms. Libby Tilson, organist, and Ms. Jean Parker, pianist.
34. The moderator called the morning session to order.
35. The hymn "The Morning Light is Breaking" was sung by the congregation.
36. Rev. Tom Caulkins, pastor of Murfreesboro Baptist Church, welcomed everyone and led in prayer.
37. The history of Murfreesboro Baptist Church was given by Dr. Hargus Taylor.
38. The history of Buckhorn Baptist Church was given by Mrs. R. G. Whitley.

39. The Director of Missions, Rev. Lonnie Armstrong, gave his report. He said the year 1992-93 was a very successful year in many ways. West Chowan Association had supported programs and work better than it ever had. This means we can do more things when our people help us do it. We cannot do anymore than our churches help us do. Then Rev. Armstrong shared some successful events. (1) The Apostoloi Team. A group of young people who came for 10 weeks to the association in which they worked in 12 churches during this time. A very exciting time for those that were involved. (2) The success of the Music Day Camp, that is put together by Miss Anna Belle Crouch, the music council and volunteers. It is known state wide as the number one sought program as a music day camp. (3) A class for Hospice, ministering to the terminally ill. (4) A class was started at Odom Prison. (5) A disaster relief team went to Florida to take a load of supplies that were given by churches. Mr. William Lawrence at Georgia Pacific Casket Co. arranged to have a truck and driver to take the supplies to the tornado area in Florida. This was at no cost. A very special thanks to this company and to all those that helped in this time of need.
40. Miss Peggy Furlough, Director of Hamilton Retirement Home, gave her report. She brought three residents with her Mrs. Sadie Sprinkle, Miss Pearl Best, and Mrs. Helen Barnhill. Mrs. Sprinkle blessed everyone by singing ''Hand In Hand With Jesus.'' Ms. Furlough praised the churches for making possible to have the Hamilton Home.
41. The hymn ''The Master Has Come'' was sung by the congregation.
42. Rev. Ray Craig, pastor of Buckhorn Church, read from Luke 6:26-36 and led in prayer.
43. A hand bell solo was performed by Ms. Sissy Eakin, lay person at Murfreesboro.
44. Dr. Bruce Whitaker, retired director of Chowan College, brought the morning message ''Good For Nothing.'' He said as Christians, this should describe us ''doing good for nothing in return.''
45. The hymn ''Throw Out The Life Line'' was sung by the congregation.
46. The moderator thanked the Murfreesboro and Buckhorn churches for providing the noon meal. Rev. Caulkins blessed the meal.

AFTERNOON SESSION

47. A musical prelude.
48. The moderator, Mr. Norman Godwin, called the session to order.
49. The hymn ''Make Me a Channel of Blessing'' was sung by the congregation. After the hymn, Rev. Bill McEntire, pastor of Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, led in prayer.
50. The afternoon speaker, Dr. Richard Smith, was introduced by Rev. Armstrong.
51. Dr. Smith's message was ''Missions Now,'' scripture taken from Matthew 25:31-40. He said the mission field is here at home right now and he told about the different churches who are opening their facilities to ethnic groups so they can hold religious services in their native languages.
52. The hymn ''Bring Them In'' was sung by the congregation.
53. The changes in the Constitution were presented by Rev. Ralph Knight. They were adopted.
54. Closing reports:
    1. Place and Preacher - Mr. Thomas Ruffin
    2. Enrollment - 263 (2 day) Mrs. Nora Craig
    3. Resolution - Mrs. Carolyn Edmondson
    4. Memorials - Mrs. Mary Rose Lawrence and Lula Mae Chamblee

    All the reports were adopted.
55. Rev. Tom Caulkins made a motion that the Moderator of the West Chowan Baptist Association appoint an ad hoc committee to consider the questions of ordination and to bring a report back to the association with recommendations it deems indicated. This was seconded and adopted by the association.

56. Mission Partnership news was shared by Rev. Armstrong, Rev. Steve Moore, and Rev. C.T. Edmondson.
57. The hymn "Fling Out the Banner" was sung by the congregation.
58. Challenge to West Chowan Baptist Association, Mrs. Donice Harrod.
59. Mrs. Donice Harrod, First Vice-President of North Carolina WMU, challenged the West Chowan Association to let the lost see the light of Jesus in them.
60. The hymn "Lord, Lay Some Soul Upon My Heart" was sung by the congregation.
61. The 109th meeting was adjourned with a prayer by Rev. Harvey Jackson, pastor of Republican Baptist Church.

Resolution Report

We, the members of the Resolutions Committee, on behalf of the messengers, ministers, lay persons and guests attending the 109th Annual Fall Meeting of the West Chowan Baptist Association resolve that:

We express our gratitude to the Jackson Baptist Church and co-host, Creeksville Baptist Church and to the Murfreesboro Baptist Church and co-host, Buckhorn Baptist Church for their fine hospitality and delicious meals.

We thank Norman Godwin, moderator, our musicians, committee members, preacher Rev. Robbie Best, and all program participants for their leadership, special music and accompaniment, informative reports and inspirational messages. We have been blessed by the Hamilton Home report by Peggy Furlough, Pearl Best, Helen Barnhill and Sadie Sprinkle. Thank you Mrs. Sprinkle for your beautiful and inspiring song.

Be it resolved, that we express our gratitude and thanksgiving to Rev. Lonnie Armstrong, Director of Missions and our Associational Secretary, Jo-Ann Mizelle for their extra-mile faithfulness to the work of our Association.

Be it resolved, that we express to God our appreciation for Dr. and Mrs. Ronald Hill for their willingness to share with us of their 40 years as missionaries to Thailand. May we undergird them with our prayers as they seek God's will in new work.

Be it resolved that we give gratitude to God for the Son shine Dr. Bruce Whitaker has brought to the life of NC Baptists.

We express our gratitude to God for the leadership, guidance and encouragement given to us during this meeting by BSC leaders, Dr. Richard Smith and Rev. Jim Lambert. Further, we express gratitude to God for Mrs. Velma Ferrell, our BSC representative.

Be it further resolved, that we give our thanks and appreciation to the Missions Development Committee and the West Chowan Disaster Team volunteers who did such a wonderful job in South Miami preparing and serving meals to the victims of Hurricane Andrew. May we prayerfully support financially the purchase of an Associational Disaster Van. We further express our gratitude to God for those who served as mission volunteers to Brazil.

As we close this Annual Fall Meeting this afternoon with a challenge from Mrs. Donice Harrod, may we resolve to pray and work that the coming year will be the best ever in advancing the work of our Lord in the West Chowan Baptist Association.

Respectfully submitted,
Shelby Stephens
Bill McEntire
Carolyn Edmondson, Chm.

The year of 1991-92 has been a good year in many ways: Our Program Directors, with the help of their committees, have planned well and carried them to successful conclusions.

The Apostoloi Team, composed of three young ladies from the Youth and Campus Ministries, did a great job working with our churches for 10 weeks this past summer.

Seven of our churches have completed "Pact Studies." These studies could be instrumental in helping them to do the kind of planning that would lead to growth instead of continued decline.

Our Seminary Extension has just completed a very successful class for a group of volunteers, who work with Hospice, dealing with "Pastoral Care of The Terminally Ill."

West Chowan's Disaster Team did a wonderful job with the Disaster Van feeding unit in South Miami, preparing and serving meals. Our churches responded well, not only with many goods and things to be taken to Florida, but with monetary donations to be used in clean up and restoration of the area destroyed by hurricane Andrew. The total amount through September 30 was $9,608.85. Thanks for all you do.

Lonnie R. Armstrong, DOM

Executive Promotion Committee Report

The Executive Promotion Committee met four times during the associational year. Each organizational director and committee chairperson was given an opportunity to give a report and promote their work. Some of the highlights in the Association this year were:

1. Earmarked $3,000 from the Contingency Fund for the World Missions Conference in October, 1993.
2. Promoted Associational Emphasis Week, May 18-24, 1992.
3. Encouraged all churches to sign up for the Cooperative Program Sunday.
4. To present changes in the Constitution to upgrade Council and Executive Promotion Committee at fall session.
5. Incorporated the West Chowan Baptist Association.
6. The Association went on record stating:
    (1) That we oppose homosexuality
    (2) That we have the responsibility to minister to homosexuals as well as others in need, such as alcoholics, drug abusers, prostitutes or prisoners.
    (3) That we also uphold the Baptist principal of the Autonomy of the local church.
7. An Apostoloi Team consisted of three young ladies who worked with the young people in twelve churches in the the association. This was a big success.
8. Appointed a World Missions Conference Committee. They were:
    Director - Rev. Lonnie Armstrong
    Secretary - Mrs. Jo-Ann Mizelle

Prayer Leader - Mrs. Mary Anne Britton
Hospitality Leader - Mrs. Carolyn Brinkley
Transportation Leader - Rev. Lemar Wheeler
Promotion Leader - Rev. Stephen Moore
Special Events Leader - Rev. Robbie Best
Financial Coordinator - Ms. Sally Ann Barber

9. Appointed a Director of Missions Search Committee. They were:
    WMU - Mrs. Melinda Harris
    Sunday School - Mrs. Ruth Miller
    Brotherhood - Rev. Harold Delong
    Evangelism - Rev. Robbie Best
    Discipleship Training - Rev. Billy Nale and a representative from each county:
        Northampton - Rev. Joe McLean
        Hertford - Mr. Harry Ward
        Bertie - Mrs. Betty Lassiter
        ex-officio - Rev. Lonnie Armstrong

In my closing report, I am addressing them to item No. 9. I am sure it is known by now that our Director of Missions, Rev. Lonnie Armstrong will be retiring in May, 1993. This is his request and the Association respects it.

I have known Brother Lonnie for approximately five years. We became a part of the association the same year, he as Director of Missions; myself as Clerk. I have never worked with anyone any more dedicated to his duties than Brother Lonnie. He was always looking for ways to move the association forward and the association has gone forward under his leadership. He wanted the committees to function in their respective areas. He wanted things to be done according to their job descriptions. I failed him sometimes in this respect. Brother Lonnie is a thoughtful caring person. One who will take time to listen to you and help you if you have a problem, a person who is easy to talk to. I will miss him in many ways as Director of Missions.

My prayers are with the Search Committee in getting someone to serve the Association as Director of Missions.

This past year has been challenging and very rewarding because of the things that were accomplished. We give God all the praise and glory for them.

Stewardship Development Committee Report

The Stewardship Development Committee gives a big thanks to all of our churches for their stewardship gifts to the West Chowan Baptist Association for this past year 1991-92. It has been your support that has made this year again a good one.

Basic stewardship principles are the same for the individual, the church or the association. God, as creator-owner of all things, has a purpose for all things. We are his stewards: therefore, we are to order our lives and use resources according to God's intention.

This committee worked on the new budget for 1992-93 and presented it to the Council and Executive Promotional Committee and was adopted. The total is $80,265.14.

If we are to be a positive force in carrying out the ministry of West Chowan, we need the financial commitment of all 60 churches. Thank you for your concern and support.

Respectfully submitted,
Ronald W. McSwain, Director

RA Report

We had a very successful year in RA's. RA Week was celebrated November 3-9, 1991. We had an RA Rally at Ross Baptist Church in Bertie County which 50 attended on November 9th. In March we had the RA World Walk for Home Missions. The leaders and boys who participated received a patch. Also, in the latter part of March a RA small car race was held at Merry Hill. There were approximately 150 in attendance. In April we had the RA Track Meet with about 200 boys and leaders. Ribbons and certificates were given to each participant.

We have talked with several churches concerning RA's. If you have any boys in your church that are not in an active program, why not call me and lets get RA's started in your church.

Thank you for your support this year. Be sure to look at the associational calendar for next years activities for the boys and plan to take part.

Sunday School Report

Thank you for your support in Sunday School this year. We are growing and I still need a lot more support from the churches.

We have an exciting year before us. There are more lost people in our nation today than ever before. Our theme this year is ''Breakthrough, Equip to Win.'' We need to get on fire for the Lord and minister to those around us. Tell others what God has done in your life, what he is doing every day. Share his love.

We had Sunday School Leadership Night on September 15th at Union. There were 60 people in attendance with 15 churches represented. I know some of you must have overlooked this date or something more important than equipping ourselves to teach God's word was happening.

If your Sunday School people have not had some training, I hope you have something planned for them.

Thanks again for allowing me to serve as your Sunday School Director.

In Christ's love,
Ruth Miller

Associational Discipleship Training Report

Discipleship Training is the organization assigned the task of helping church members, new church members, and church leaders (also potential leaders) grow in their Christian discipleship. The Discipleship Training program does not compete with other church programs, but when properly administered, enhances the total work of the church.

The Discipleship Training Program has responsibility for teaching in five major content areas. These are: Christian Doctrine, Christian Ethics, Christian History, Church Polity and Organization, and Skill Development (in performing the function of a New Testament church).

During this past church year Discipleship Training in our association:

1. Sponsored a Children's/Youth Bible Drill at Galatia Baptist Church.
2. Sent children and youth to Children's/Youth Bible Drill in Raleigh, NC.

3. Encouraged every church to study the Southern Baptist Convention Doctrinal Study for this year (The Doctrine of the Bible).
4. Sponsored a leadership conference at First Baptist Church, Ahoskie at the Association Key Leadership Conference.
5. Sponsored "M" Night at First Baptist Church, Ahoskie. Dr. Wayne Jones, our guest speaker, spoke on the importance of equipping adults for church growth.

I am available to serve the churches of West Chowan Association. Please let me help you by informing me of the particular training needs of your church.

Seminary Extension Report

The Seminary Extension group has conducted one class in Pastoral Care with the terminally ill. The class was well received and attended. It is planned to repeat this class in the spring if there are enough pastors who are interested.

There are also plans to conduct a course in Christian Ethics again provided there is sufficient interest. Other courses will be offered if you call me and providing we can find a qualified instructor.

WMU Annual Report 1992

CALLED AND ACCOUNTABLE

Women's Missionary Union, WMU, is an auxiliary of the Southern Baptist Church and West Chowan Baptist Association that exists to teach churches about missions so they will be more involved in missions at home and around the world through active ministry of prayer for and financial support of missions. The work of the WMU of the West Chowan Baptist Association is directed by the associational council, which is composed of 17 members that represent the three counties in our association. We have had a wonderful year as we accepted the call of God and became more accountable to answering that call.

Our year began with the WMU Leaders from the state conducting a Leadership Training Conference for associational leaders at Williamston, NC. Leadership training sessions, for all age levels and directors, were held at Conway and Powellsville Baptist Churches in September. The church year has been full of opportunities to learn about missions and to serve the Lord through mission action. These opportunities include the following: Mission Friends held a craft fair and a workshop on teaching home and foreign missions; Girls in Action held day and overnight camps, G.A. events, Recognition Services, a foreign mission study on Venezuela, a G.A. Leadership Appreciation Tea, a G.A. Banquet, and Christmas in August Activities; Baptist Young Women had a workshop for mothers on children and peer pressure and a personal witnessing and outreach session; Baptist Women sponsored the Women's World Day of Prayer, trips to the Baptist State Convention, Wake Forest Seminary, and the Baptist Foundation Building; Mission Action had a Mission Action Night, Odom Christmas and Valentine events, State Women's Prison Christmas project and many local activities in our association; Mission Study held foreign mission studies in each county and taught the home mission book "No Small Sacrifice"; Mission Support encouraged us to pray, give and go.

Four churches received Standard on the Achievement Guide. They were Ahoskie First, Creech Memorial, Earlys, and Holly Grove. Receiving Distinguished were Aulander, Buckhorn, Cashie, Elm Grove, Potecasi, and Union.

Two scholarships were awarded by the association. Those receiving them were Patricia Bunch and Lori Liverman.

This year has been an important year as all the council members have learned to use the power that is ours through the Holy Spirit. For we are all called and we are all accountable to use that power to spread the work of Christ for we are "Labourers together for God." We ask for your prayers as we continue to work for the Lord.

Called and Accountable,
Melinda E. Harris, WMU Director
Wanda McEntire, Asst. WMU Director

Music Report

Sacred music in church plays an important role as people are brought together each week for fellowship and worship. Our musicians have been involved in training, observing, participating and reaching out to others this year.

October - Region I Adult Choir Festival
November - Inter-racial Choir for Baptist Women's World Day of Prayer scheduled for November 2. Participating in North Carolina Praise Sing II
December - Christmas Music
January - New Beginnings
February - Evangelistic Rally Associational Choir with Neal Eller, Associate Director, Music Department of BSC, as guest; Murfreesboro Baptist Church Handbell Choir represented the WCBA at the State Festival
March - churches worked with music planning for VBS
April - Easter music in churches; WBCA Spring Meeting; Worship Workshop - music included
May - Key Leadership Conference at Caswell
June - Representative to Church Music Conference, Ridgecrest
July - Music Day Camp; Youth/Adult Music Week, Caswell
August - Children's Choir Camp, Caswell; regional Methods and Materials Music Clinic; Assoc. Key Leadership Conference; Church Music Emphasis Week observed in churches
September Volunteer Music Directors Retreats, Caraway; music plans for 92-93

The Children's Music Day Camp members presented "The Story Tellin' Man," directed by Libby Tilson, and "Heart Covenant" directed by Rev. Hugh Patterson. The 327 children, youth, adults and parents are to be commended for their participation. A total of $978.11 was given for assisting missions in China, Brazil, Poland, BCH in Kinston, New York and giving three huge boxes for the SAFE House and the Food Pantry. The 1993 Children's Music Day Camp will be July 12-16.

As another church year begins, let us continue to "sing and make music to the Lord, always giving thanks to God for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. (Eph. 5:19-20 NIV)

Thank you for your service to the Lord. You are appreciated. You continue to be remembered in thoughts and prayers.

Report of the Committee on Ordination

The report of the Committee on Ordination is in two parts.

PART I

The Committee met on two occasions for the purpose of examining candidates for the gospel ministry.

On November 3, 1991, at the request of the Harrellsville Baptist Church, the Committee examined Mr. Tony Capehart prior to his ordination as a Christian minister.

At the request of the Seabord Baptist Church, the Committee met on November 24, 1991, to confer with Mr. Thomas Gibbs relative to his call into the ministry.

In each instance the Committee questioned the candidate's call, education, gifts for ministry, and theological convictions.

At the conclusion of the questioning it was unanimously agreed that the candidates were ''set for the defense of the gospel'' and the Committee therefore recommended them for ordination.

PART II

The constitution of the West Chowan Baptist Association provides for standing committees ''which serve through the year and which shall report to each session or as the need arises.''

One of the designated standing committees is ''a Committee on Ordination consisting of three. It shall be the duty of this committee to make itself available to any church who has a candidate for the Gospel ministry.''

These instructions do not include any guidelines or suggestions as to procedure. As a consequence there has been wide variation in how the Committee has functioned.

It is the feeling of the Committee on Ordination that there should be a uniform procedure with directions as to how the process of ordination shall take place in the West Chowan Baptist Association.

Therefore, the Committee recommends that the Moderator of the West Chowan Baptist Association appoint an ad hoc committee to consider the question of ordination and to bring a report back to the Association.

Evangelism Report 1991-1992

It is with a note of sadness that I bring you this year's Evangelism Committee's report. In August 1992 one of our committee members, Dr. Harold Heath, suffered a heart attack and died. We as a committee and individuals are deeply indebted to Rev. Heath for his contributions to our lives. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him.

The Committee was privileged to have planned several events this past year that met with moderate success. On January 22 Ahoskie First Baptist Church was the site of our Prayer Retreat. During the retreat Betty Joyner, John Eure, and Shirley Miller led our children, youth, and adults to pray for ourselves, the lost in our community, and our upcoming Evangelism Rally and Spring Revivals. Dr. Robert Hamblin from Tupelo, Mississippi spoke at our February 2 Evangelism Rally. Over 300 people filled Turner Auditorium on the Chowan College Campus. The special music was provided by an orchestra from Chowan College, a mass choir from churches in the Association, Chowan College Choir, and the Ahoskie Baptist Church Youth Choir.

The Evangelism Rally was followed by a Witnessing Training Seminar conducted at the Associational Office, February 22, 1992. Rev. Victor Cole, Associate in Evangelism from the North Carolina Baptist State Convention was the seminar leader. Eighteen people took advantage of this training.

The Evangelism Committee and the Youth Committee combined to host a Youth Rally on March 14 at Ridgecroft High School. Over 100 youth were in attendance. On July 14, Chowan College was again the host as ''Witness,'' the college age singing group sponsored by the Evangelism Department of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, performed a concert of high energy, youth oriented music. We are hoping this will become an annual event.

This year's committee is hard at work planning events for the upcoming year. Below is a list of the events that we anticipate sponsoring this year. Plan now to attend the following:

January 23, 1993 - Witness Training Seminar
March 1993 - Youth Evangelistic Crusade
Summer 1993 - ''Witness'' Concert with Keynote Speaker
August 21, 1993 - Associational Wide Carnival and Gospel

This year's goal for the committee is to plan events that will equip the saints to witness and bring the lost to Christ. Our events will be intentional tailored that end. We welcome your suggestions as together we try to win the West Chowan Association for Christ.

Youth Report

The Associational Youth Committee has had a productive year and plans to increase its activities for the coming year.

Highlighting this past year was a New Year's Eve Lock-In at Ridgecroft Academy with over 100 attending. The theme ''Making A Difference'' centered on the basis of what it means to be a follower of Christ and how living into these basics could make a difference in the youths personal lives and in their schools and churches. Associational Youth Night in March was also a success with about 140 attending. To close out the summer the state sponsored ''Apostoloi Team'' that consisted of three college girls got together and had a ''end of the summer JAM'' in which they planned. It was attended by approximately 60 people.

The goal for the coming year will be to help create a positive Christian peer climate. This goal will be accomplished by assisting our churches to cooperate and provide high quality activities for our youth.

North Carolina Baptist Hospital

REPORT TO THE ASSOCIATIONS 1992

Baptist Hospital utilizes the skills and training of more than 5,700 employees to provide outstanding health care in settings as varied as the Brenner Children's Hospital, the Trauma Center, and the J. Paul Sticht Center on Aging and Rehabilitation. Last year, the Joint Committee on the Accreditation of Health Care Organizations said that Baptist Hospital ranks in the top 10 percent of all hospitals in the nation.

During the past year, the hospital admitted 24,000 patients. It performed 16,662 surgical procedures, including 1,020 open heart operations, 29 kidney transplants and 80 bone marrow transplants. The AirCare helicopter flew 742 missions.

Total revenue of the hospital during the year was $407,280,000. Cooperative Program gifts from the churches were $656,180, which was applied to the budget of the Department of Pastoral Care. The Mother's Day Offering and other special gifts from the churches totaled $424,406 and was used for benevolent care for patients who had no other means of paying their hospital bills.

The Pastoral Care Department, which is funded in part through the Cooperative Program, provided clinical pastoral education to 55 students during the past year. The Pastoral Care staff provided more than 53,000 specific ministries to hospital patients, family members and staff. And, the counseling division provided over 24,000 counseling sessions. The professional staff of the Pastoral Care Department continues to respond to requests for help from churches in conflict, from pastors and their families across the state.

The various services of the hospital are readily accessible to all North Carolina Baptists and others. A telephone call to the Health-On-Call Office (919-716-2255) can secure an outpatient appointment with any one of the various specialists on the staff or can begin the process of gaining admission to the hospital if that need is indicated.

Charges for the hospital services compare very favorably with those in other hospitals of the state. Reports from the North Carolina Medical Database Commission indicate that Baptist Hospital's charges are lower than the average in other hospitals which provide similar services and are considerably lower than in the other teaching hospitals. Our hospital did not have an increase in its rates for the current fiscal year of July 1, 1992 - June 30, 1993.

The hospital's physical plant continues to expand. A new 840-space parking deck was opened in January. A new Emergency Department/Dietary building which will also make possible more private patient rooms is under construction now. Construction will begin soon on the 170-bed skilled and intermediate care nursing facility and on the J. Paul Stitch Center on Aging and Rehabilitation. This expansion will make it possible not only to serve more people, but to serve them better.

The staff and the patients of Baptist Hospital are grateful to North Carolina Baptists for the heritage they have given the institution and for the moral and financial support they continue to give to its ministry.

1992 Associational Report - Baptist Children's Home

Like a marathon runner, Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina (BCH) "hit the wall" in 1991-92, but persevered to finish standing up!

In an exhausting year for staff and a myriad of volunteers, BCH successfully concluded its first statewide fund-raising campaign, received its first Thanksgiving Offering since 1979, dedicated expansion of Cameron Boys Camp, broke ground for the new Fleshman-Pratt Education Center in Thomasville, inaugurated an innovative Bible study program at Mills Home, installed two new pastors at campus churches and solidified programs that have placed it among child care leaders for decades.

These efforts enabled BCH to serve more than 1,300 children and families at 13 facilities statewide, including, Chris, named All-Conference nose guard for 2A state champion Thomasville Bulldogs; Sandi, who has enrolled at Gardner-Webb College; Deborah, named outstanding Freshman at Thomasville High after enduring a court battle that sent her father to prison for abuse; Jennifer, who married on the Broyhill campus where she'd lived for seven years; Kathy, who will continue to live at Broyhill while she attends college; and a host of other who are making life-changing commitments because they've received a second chance at Baptist Children's Homes.

In April, BCH successfully concluded its "Give a child a chance!" financial campaign by gaining three-year commitments for $11.2 million, topping the $7.5 million goal, and the challenge goal of $11 million. Significant priorities accomplished in the campaign are: expansion and relocation of Cameron Boys Camp to a more secluded site on its 903-acres of wilderness; ground-breaking for the Fleshman-Pratt Education Center, a model day care facility for infants, toddlers and two-year-olds; a unique Staff Training Institute for child care workers and social workers; and more than $2.7 million committed for permanent endowment.

And, the first Thanksgiving Offering for BCH since 1979 raised $510,000, a sum more than $100,000 greater than that realized through the combined offering with Baptist Hospital and Baptist Retirement Homes. BCH sent $1,000 from the Thanksgiving Offering to the Baptist Children's Homes of Sao Paulo, Brazil as fulfillment of a promise to donate 10 percent of everything received over the goal to our partners in the south.

In addition, BCH maintained the partnership with our Brazilian counterparts by sending three training teams to Brazil, and hosting a group of Brazilian pastors in Thomasville.

Most BCH residents come from dysfunctional families where a single parent, most often a mother, is unable to care for her children. Her frustration with life, often due to alcohol or drug abuse, or having been abused herself, leads to limitless freedom for the children, which leads to troubling behavior. Physical abuse, divorce, alcohol, drugs and truancy mark their young lives. Behavioral problems make it impossible for the child to continue to live at home.

Baptist Children's Homes provides a safe environment where children learn to name their problems and set goals to overcome them, which leads to behavior change and often.

At the same time, willing family members also are addressing their problems with the help of BCH social workers. In many cases, children and families are restored.

BCH enjoyed a year of tremendous successes, in human terms and in institutional terms, which will allow it to continue to affect change in lives. Success in the "Give a child a chance!" Campaign will help provide a margin of excellence in the future when the pledges are paid. Already, the enthusiasm engendered by the effort have lifted the spirits of staff across the state.

Still, the Cooperative Program continues to anchor our budget planning. We urge renewed commitment to cooperative giving among our churches. It is essential, not only for us, but for the entire missions enterprise built painstakingly for a century and a half. Baptist Children's Homes receives $1.5 million from Cooperative Program receipts each year. This is the stackpole around which we build our other income planning. A decrease in Cooperative Program dollars to Baptist Children's Homes would seriously jeopardize our ability to care for children.

An increasingly important aspect of our support comes from estate gifts and bequests. More and more people who want their resources to provide new life for children include BCH in their wills.

When Sandi, and Kathy, and Chris, and Barbara come to us, full of potential and hope, we want to be able to continue to tell them North Carolina Baptists care enough to give them a chance!

Baptist Retirement Homes Report

1992: MAKING LIFE FOR OLDER ADULTS THE BEST OF TIMES

One of the greatest needs facing North Carolina Baptists as they move into 1993 is the ability to provide affordable quality long-term care services to the "Aged Saints" of our Convention.

The fastest growing segment of North Carolina Baptist life are those individuals in the age category of 85 and older. That age group is growing at five times the rate of any other population segment in Baptist life. The 85 and older age group most likely to need the services provided by a long-term care institution like Baptist Retirement Homes. Unfortunately in 1992 in our State, there were not enough nursing care beds to meet the needs of the growing number of Older Adults who were functionally impaired and needed the services of a long-term care provider. Complicating the shortage problem was the fact that the cost of those beds was high (more than average North Carolina Baptist Older Adult could pay). And to make matters even worse, in spite of the high cost of those beds, often the quality of care provided through those beds was fair at best. In other words, the greatest problem facing North Carolina Baptist Older Adults in 1992 was the fact that there were simply not enough affordable quality nursing care beds available for use by people like you and me and our Older Adult family members.

Having become aware some years ago of the above mentioned problem, Baptist Retirement Homes (for the last five year period) has been working to develop a system of affordable quality nursing care beds throughout the State for use by North Carolina Baptist Older Adults. New nursing care beds became available in the Piedmont area of our State in 1989 (through the opening of the Brookridge Retirement Community). In 1992, affordable quality nursing care will become available to Western North Carolina Baptist

Older Adults through the new Rickman Nursing Care Center being built on Richmond Hill in Northwest Asheville. It is our institution's hope that by 1994 affordable quality nursing care will also be available to Eastern North Carolina Baptist Older Adults as well. Your support has made the above possible.

In 1992, North Carolina Baptists through their gifts to the Cooperative Program and North Carolina Offering for Older Adults made it possible for Baptist Retirement Homes to provide financial assistance to more than 60 percent of all the Older Adults living in its health care related facilities. In addition, Western North Carolina Baptists contributed more than $2.5 million toward the construction of the new Rickman Nursing Care Center in Asheville. . . a new facility that will enable Baptist Retirement Homes to make life for many Western North Carolina Baptists truly. . . the Best of Times.

Thank you North Carolina Baptists for your support. Please continue to pray for our ministry and its ability to meet the ever growing needs of the Older Adults of our Convention.

William B. Stillerman, President
Baptist Retirement Homes of North Carolina, Inc.

Report of the North Carolina Foundation, Inc.

The North Carolina Baptist Foundation, as an agency of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, is committed under the guidance of the Holy Spirit in serving North Carolina Baptists and others in generating an increased awareness of Christian estate stewardship principals as a means of financially undergirding churches, institutions and mission endeavors on a permanent basis.

Assets are managed under the direction of the Foundation Board of Directors with interest income being paid either in perpetuity to Baptist causes named by the donor or to the donor (or heirs) for their lifetime (or specific period of time) before the income is then paid in perpetuity to the named Baptist causes.

Total market value of Foundation assets, December 31, 1991:	$36,283,384

During 1991, the Board of Directors, with the assistance of a nationally recognized investment consulting firm, adopted a detailed Investment Policy to govern the types of investments that its fiscal agents may make in keeping with the Christian commitment of the Foundation, as well as attempt to insure that the future spending value of the invested trust fund dollar will keep up with inflation. A study revealed that during the past five years the fiscal agents managing the Foundation assets ranked near the top nationally with other investment managers who operate under investment guidelines similar to the ones provided by the Foundation Board.

The Foundation staff and operations are housed in a building adjacent to the Baptist State Convention Building in Cary. Individuals and church groups are invited to call and arrange a visit of their trust Agency's office building.

The significance of the Foundation services was illustrated in a recent experience that staff members had while eating in a fast food restaurant in Durham. In taking a seat adjacent to a table occupied by a young black police officer, we observed the enthusiasm of a white lad of about four years of age as he stood talking to the officer. As the mother and a younger child, coming from another area of the restaurant, called for the lad to join them, he walked away from the table six to eight feet, turned around and said to the officer, who was now standing and preparing to leave, "Can I give you a hug?" After an affirmative answer from the officer, the child walked over to the officer, reached around his legs and gave him a hug. The officer confirmed to us that he wished the world was filled with people like this child. The example corresponds to what so may already have done through the Foundation. As they approach the time of leaving this earthly life, they look back affectionately on what the Lord has done for them during their life and decide that they want to leave an expression of their love through an enduring and lasting gift (a "hug," if you please) that will serve the Lord until His return.

The Christian Life Commission Report

The Commission seeks to develop Christian morality among Southern Baptists by emphasizing the application of the principles of the Christian faith both in personal and public life. An ongoing effort is made to provide Christian ethics services to other Southern Baptist agencies, state Baptist conventions, associations, churches, and individuals to enable Southern Baptists to deal more effectively with the serious moral challenges of our time. The Commission encourages the formation and activation of Christian Life Committees at all levels of Southern Baptist life beginning with the local church. By coordinating and correlating Southern Baptist social concerns, the Commission helps to make the greatest possible impact for Christ in support of the Convention's total objectives.

The presence of full-time Washington-based staff has enhanced greatly the Commission's ability to fulfill the portion of its program statement which calls on the it to "bring to bear Baptist statements, convictions and insights in the field of Christian ethics and religious liberty upon important policy making groups" and to "present Southern Baptist insight for consideration in the planning of federal government programs on children and youth, aging, housing, employment, public health, and other matters pertaining to social welfare."

During the past year, the Washington and Nashville staffs have worked diligently to share both with Congress and the White House numerous convictions and concerns of Southern Baptists. Commission staff members have been active in corresponding and meeting with members of both the legislative and executive branches of the federal government concerning areas of Southern Baptist concern. Also, with the approval of the Convention's Executive Committee, the Commission launched a new publication, Salt, in a newsletter format (six issues a year), which seeks to keep Southern Baptists informed on public policy and issues active in the administrative, judicial and legislative branches on the federal government. The goal of Salt is to inform and motivate Southern Baptists to influence their president, senators, and representatives in a responsible, scriptural manner.

The Commission has also been particularly active during the past year in leading a strong coalition of numerous groups supporting legislation restricting alcohol advertising and requiring mandatory health warnings on alcohol advertisements. Abortion, drug abuse and pornography are among the other issues on which the Commission staff has been involved through the Washington office in the past year. The Commission remains particularly concerned about the serious threats to religious liberty posed by recent Supreme Court decisions and works closely with a coalition of groups trying to remedy these threats both through legislation and judicial action. The Commission also continued to pursue the fulfillment of its program statement this past year through the filing of amicus curiae, ''friend of the court,'' briefs in cases involving abortion, pornography and religious liberty.

In the religious liberty arena, the Commission also filed its first independent amicus curia (friend of the court) brief in the U.S. Supreme Court in the Lee v. Weisman school graduation prayer case. In this brief, the Commission asked the Court to overturn a lower court order prohibiting invocations and benedictions containing the word ''God'' at public school commencement exercises. The Commission has also asked the Court to revise the ''Lemon'' test and suggested a new test to replace Lemon, a test which is premised on the principles of government accommodation of religious practices which exist independently of government action and are not induced or coerced by government. The Commission believes students must have the right to free exercise of their religious liberty while in school, to associate voluntarily with one another during lunch, recess and free periods to pray, study the Bible and to discuss religious issues with each other without government control or censorship.

The Commission's 1992 annual national seminar in Washington, D.C. was entitled ''Citizen Christians: Their Rights and Responsibilities.'' The program combined interpretive biblical themes with addresses on subjects such as ''How Christians Can Make a Difference Inside Government'' and ''What You as a Christian Can and Cannot Do.'' The seminar also included a White House briefing and a congressional breakfast where seminar participants had an opportunity to interact with various senators and congressmen about issues of concern to them.

The Commission continued its long-standing leadership in the field of race relations by sponsoring a consultation which brought Southern Baptists of many racial and ethnic backgrounds together. The consultation was very helpful in addressing the goals the Commission seeks and the obstacles the Commission faces in encouraging our denomination and our society to be more Christ-like on this issue in the years ahead. The Commission also provided leadership in the National Coalition Against Pornography and during Bible Preaching-Church Administration Weeks and National Student Weeks at Ridgecrest and Glorieta. Commission staff also served as resource persons in events held in numerous state conventions as well as for other Southern Baptist agencies and entities.

The Commission continued its responsibility assigned by the Southern Baptist Convention for education and action related to the issue of hunger. Commission staff produced the 1991-1992 World Hunger Awareness/Action Guide entitled Hunger. This guide was mailed to every church in the Convention to encourage and to support the observance of World Hunger Day. The Commission-produced film, What Shall We Do in a Hungry World?, which had previously been mailed in videotape form to Southern Baptist associations, continued to be used significantly in heightening Southern Baptists' awareness on this vital issue.

Christian Action League Report 1991-92

For the tenth consecutive year, the gambling industry has not been able to secure passage of any gambling legislation such as a lottery or pari-mutuel betting (horse and dog racing).

The industry made its biggest push ever during the 1991-1992 legislative session. They secured 14 of the most effective and best known lobbyists that money can buy to push for their cause, but to no avail. When the legislature adjourned on July 24, the gambling industry threw in the towel realizing that they did not have the votes in the N.C. House to pass their state-sponsored gambling bill, the lottery.

What made the difference? People like you did. You secured the commitments from your legislators that the role of government is not to exploit their weakest citizens, but to appeal to their strengths. Gambling violates that age-old principle.

There is one thing for sure. The pro-gambling forces will be back. However, the issue will be decided on November 3 at the General Election. If you elect legislators who are opposed to state-sponsored gambling, it will not make any difference how many lobbyists the gambling industry employs. The decision is in your hands. How do the candidates from your area stand on this issue?

There are other very important moral issues that you need to discuss with your legislative candidates. Some of them are:

1. SEX EDUCATION. . . Are our young people being deceived into believing that "safe sex" outside of marriage is possible and okay? The current rise in venereal diseases and teenage pregnancies, and the related emotional problems tells us we must focus attention on this issue.
2. ABORTION. . . The Supreme Court ruling regarding the abortion law of the state of Pennsylvania opens the door for further restrictions and conditions under which abortions can be performed — leaving this up to the states. This year we have worked on trying to get legislation passed requiring parental consent for abortion on minors, and reducing abortion funding. Both of these measures passed in the House but died in the Senate.
3. ALCOHOL/DRUG ISSUES. . . It is important that we continue to address problems related to alcohol use and abuse. Reducing the blood alcohol standard for DWI from .10 to .08 was one of our targets this year, but it also failed to pass in the Senate after passing in the House.

We cannot overemphasize the importance of getting to know who your candidates are and how they stand on these key issues. Plato put it so well: "The price that good people pay for not being involved in politics is to be governed by people worse than themselves."

Thank you for standing with us in the cause of applied Christianity.

Coy C. Privette, Executive Director

The Biblical Recorder Report

Last year we reported to you: "The Baptist world is changing rapidly; some would contend it is for good while others think it is nothing short of a tragedy." In these past 12 months, the changes are beyond description—on the world scene and in Baptist life.

Whatever one's view may be, there is an indispensible need for correct and reliable information. The Biblical Recorder was born and continues to serve for that purpose. Never was the Recorder more needed than now.

People are reading less than any time in recent history. It is true of secular publications, it is true of wholesome books from respected libraries, it is true of religious publications. We live in an electronic age where we often think we know the answers to the issues only to discover we do not.

An informed Baptist is a better Baptist; an uninformed Baptist may be an uninvolved or disruptive Baptist. No democracy, including our local churches, can survive long without an informed, involved constituency which makes decisions based upon accurate information from reliable sources.

The most important thing facing us at this point is to get the Recorder into more Baptist homes than ever before. Your support as a subscriber and reader and your encouragement to others will enable the paper to better serve the constituency with accurate and helpful information delivered to Baptist homes and churches. We need your help!

In order to save churches large amounts of money and to increase the readership of the Recorder, Church News Service (CNS) was launched in 1990. This system lets any congregation have their church newsletter incorporated into the Biblical Recorder which saves staff time, postage and printing costs. Usually, for less than what it costs to produce the church newsletter, CNS gives the entire Baptist communication package to each family in the congregation.

The paper focuses more and more attention to North Carolina Baptists with news, features and inspirational articles which will encourage individuals and churches in their witness and ministry. One sure way to conquer problems and overcome the barriers to effective witness and ministry is to have the facts, know the issues and be adequately informed.

That is why the Recorder was born; that is why it serves today. For more information on how your church can subscribe or use CNS, contact:

Dedicated to

LONNIE R. ARMSTRONG

Director of Missions

December 1986 - May 1993

The 1993 Annual of the West Chowan Baptist Association is dedicated to Rev. Lonnie R. Armstrong. He has served as the Director of Missions for the past six and a half years.

Rev. Armstrong is a native of Nash County, North Carolina. After graduation from Red Oak High School in 1944, he was called into active duty with the U.S. Army. His tour of duty took him to Germany and several states in this nation, after which he was discharged with the rank of S/Sgt., in 1946.

When he returned home, he was employed by Sexton & Sons, Inc., of Rocky Mount, N.C., as a salesman and department manager. This job lasted for twenty-one years.

At the age of forty-two, he answered God's call into the ministry to full time service. He enrolled in the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and was called by a two Church field in the Tar River Baptist Association, the Castalia and Pleasant Grove Baptist Churches. This ministry lasted for six years.

In September, 1974, he was called as pastor of the Galatia Baptist Church in the West Chowan Baptist Association. During his ministry at Galatia, he served on several committees of the Association and on the General Board, its Executive Committee of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina for five years and three months.

In December, 1986, he was elected as the Director of Missions of the West Chowan Baptist Association. He has faithfully served in this position for six and a half years. On May 31, 1993, he retired from the Association.

The Armstrongs have two children and three grandchildren. They make their permanent home at: Route 1, Box 192 - Pendleton, N.C. 27862.

''It is with deep gratitude and thankfulness to God, to all the churches and all the people of the Tar River and West Chowan Baptist Associations for twenty-five wonderful years in the ministry.''

Constitution

NAME

MEMBERSHIP

Article 2. It shall be composed of messengers elected by the churches connected with this body and all ordained ministers who are pastors of said churches, together with the officers of this Association and chairmen of all standing committees. Each church of 100 members and under shall be entitled to two messengers and for each additional 100 members an additional messenger provided that no church shall have more than 10 messengers.

PURPOSE

Article 3. The purpose of this Association shall be to inspire, encourage and enlist its membership in a spirit of brotherly love and cooperation for the promotion of the entire program of our denomination; to the end that the gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ might be proclaimed with greater power and effectiveness in our Association, our State and Nation, and unto the uttermost part of the world.

POWERS AND PREROGATIVES

Article 4. The Association shall have no power to infringe upon the sovereignty or rights of the churches. It is neither an ecclesiastical nor legislative council, nor a court of appeal. It may advise the churches and recommend measures of usefulness for their adoption, but cannot bind them in any way. There shall be full recognition of the autonomy of the local church and there shall be full recognition of the autonomy of the Association. However, in view of the combined wisdom, piety and intelligence of the Association, it justly claims the very highest consideration and regard for itself, its objects and its recommendations.

Article 5. Any Baptist church in good standing approving the design, objects and principles of this Association, and holding the same doctrine and ordinances, may be admitted into fellowship upon two-thirds vote of the messengers. All applications shall be referred to the Membership Committee for study. Churches desiring membership should give notice by making application one year in advance.

Article 6. The Association may dissolve its relation with any church that consistently refuses to support the design, objects and principles of the West Chowan Baptist Association. Any irregularities which are reported shall be referred to the Membership Committee who will report their finds to the Fall Associational Meeting. The relationship may be dissolved by a two-thirds vote of the messengers one year after irregularities have been brought to the attention of the association.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES

Article 7. Every church will be requested to contribute a percentage of its gifts, or so much per resident member for defraying the expenses of the Association and for direction of the promotional education and missionary work of the Association. This percentage or amount shall be sent to the Associational Treasurer monthly by each church treasurer.

Article 8. Every church will send to every annual session of the Association a letter on the form adopted by the Association with such additional information as it may deem fitting.

Article 9. Any church wishing to dissolve its relationship with the Association in order to transfer to another association may do so with a majority vote at any regular Associational meeting.

ORGANIZATION

Article 10. The officers of this Association shall be a Moderator, a Vice-Moderator, a Clerk, a Treasurer, a Parliamentarian, a Director of Sunday School, a Director of Discipleship Training, a Director of Brotherhood, a Director of Woman's Missionary Union, a Director of Music, a Director of Missions Development, a Director of Stewardship Development, a Director of Evangelism, a Director of Pastor/Church Relations, a Director of Family and Christian Social Ministries, a Director of Seminary Extension and a Director of Youth. They shall be elected at the Spring Session. The term of all offices shall commence on October 1st and continue until their successors are elected in the Spring Session and are ready to take office the following October 1st. All prior year officers shall make an annual report at the Fall Associational meeting.

DUTIES

Article 11. It shall be the duty of the Moderator to open meetings punctually at the appointed time; to enforce the rules; to enforce order and to exercise all prerogatives of a presiding officer according to Robert's Rules of Order.

Article 12. It shall be the duty of the Vice-Moderator to perform the duties of the Moderator in his absence.

Article 13. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to attend and keep a full record of the meetings of the Association and to compile, edit and distribute to the churches the minutes and data from the church letters in an annual report. He may appoint an assistant when necessary. He shall be paid such honorarium and expenses as the Association directs.

Article 14. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive, safegard and distribute all funds of the Association. Disbursements of funds shall be in accordance with the budget adopted by the Association. He shall make quarterly reports to the Executive Promotion Committee and annual reports to the Fall session. He may be paid honorariums and expenses as the Association may direct. Non-budget items shall be approved by the Stewardship Development Committee. Treasurer shall be under bond.

Article 15. The Parliamentarian shall assist the presiding officer in conducting the business of the Association according to Robert's Rules of Order.

Article 16. The Director of Sunday School shall promote and supervise the Sunday School Program in the Association in cooperation with the Executive Promotion Committee and the Director of Missions.

Article 17. The Director of Discipleship Training shall promote and supervise the Discipleship Training Program of the Association in cooperation with the Executive Promotion Committee and the Director of Missions.

Article 18. The Director of Brotherhood shall direct and supervise the program of Baptist Men and Boys in the Association in cooperation with the Executive Promotion Committee and the Director of Missions.

Article 19. The Director of Woman's Missionary Union shall direct and supervise the program for the women and girls in the Association in cooperation with the Executive Promotion Committee and the Director of Missions.

Article 20. The Director of Music shall promote and supervise the program of music in the Association in cooperation with the Executive Promotion Committee and the Director of Missions.

Article 21. The Director of Missions Development shall promote and supervise the Missions Development Program for the Association in cooperation with the Executive Promotion Committee and the Director of Missions.

Article 22. The Director of Stewardship Development shall promote and supervise the Stewardship Development Program in the Association in cooperation with the Executive Promotion Committee and the Director of Missions. It shall also be his duty, with the help of the committee to prepare the annual Association Budget.

Article 23. The Director of Evangelism shall promote and supervise the development of a program of evangelism for the association in cooperation with the Executive Promotion Committee and the Director of Missions.

Article 24. The Director of Pastor/Church Relations shall promote and supervise the planning of events and programs that will lead to better Pastor/Church relations in cooperation with the Executive Promotion Committee and the Director of Missions.

Article 25. The Director of Family and Christian Social Ministries shall promote and supervise the Family and Christian Social Ministries program for the association in cooperation with the Executive Promotion Committee and the Director of Missions.

Article 26. The Director of Seminary Extension shall promote and supervise the Seminary Extension Program for the association in cooperation with the Executive Promotion Committee and the Director of Missions.

Article 27. The Director of Youth shall promote and supervise the Youth Program for the association in cooperation with the Executive Promotion Committee and the Director of Missions.

THE EXECUTIVE PROMOTION COMMITTEE

Article 28. The Executive Promotion Committee of the Association shall be the following: Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, Parliamentarian, Director of Woman's Missionary Union, Director of Missions, Director of Sunday School, Director of Stewardship Development, Director of Missions Development, Director of Discipleship Training, Director of Brotherhood, Director of Music, Director of Evangelism, Director of Pastor/Church Relations, Director of Family and Christian Social Ministries, Director of Seminary Extension and Director of Youth, the pastor of each church in the Association provided he is a member of the church he represents and one lay member from each church.

It shall be the duty of the Executive Promotion Committee to transact whatever business may require attention of the Association between sessions which actions shall be binding on the Association. The Executive Promotion Committee of the Association shall function with those duly elected members present and voting. No percentage quorum is required for these meetings. The Executive Promotion Committee should meet quarterly and submit a full report of its work to the Association together with recommendations for the promotion and extension of the work, including the Associational budget.

The Associational Council of the Executive Promotion Committee will be composed of the officers of the Association and all program directors listed in Article 28. This council will work in close harmony with the Director of Missions in plans and programs. The Associational Council of the Executive Promotion Committee shall function with those duly elected officers present and voting at any announced meeting. No percentage quorum is required for these meetings.

In the event that any office, constituted by any article herein, becomes vacant during the Associational year, said office may be filled for the interim by appointment of the Associational Council.

Article 29. The Director of Missions whom the Association may employ, shall be under the direction of the Associational Council of the Executive Promotion Committee. He shall promote and coordinate the work of the Association through the organizations and programs and carry out the missionary and extension plans of the Associational Council. He shall be an ex officio member of all committees in an advisory and promotional capacity.

AMENDMENTS

Article 30. This Constitution may be altered at the Fall session of the body by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present and voting. However, a sixty-day notice of the proposed change shall be sent to the chairman of the Associational Council of the Executive Promotion Committee and such proposed amendment shall be read on two consecutive days before the action on the same.

COMMITTEE AND THEIR DUTIES

Article 31. The committees of the Association shall be divided into two categories.

Section A. Committees to be appointed by the Moderator elect in advance of the Fall Meeting.

1. A Committee on Enrollment consisting of six. This committee shall recognize and register all messengers and others attending the Association and report to the Association when called upon.

2. A Committee on Committees consisting of two members from each of the counties comprising the Association. This committee shall nominate for election by the Association all standing committees and such other committees as may be assigned to it. This committee should make its primary report during the first session of the Fall meeting. This committee shall designate the chairman of each committee.

Section B. Standing Committees which will serve through the year and which shall report at each session or as the need arises. All Standing Committees shall serve on a three year rotation term, unless otherwise specified.

1. A Committee on Place and Preacher consisting of three, the duty of which shall be to recommend to the Association where the next Spring and Fall sessions shall meet and the preacher to deliver the annual sermon and his alternate.

2. A Committee on Resolutions consisting of three, the duty of which shall be to draw up and present to the Association suitable resolutions of appreciation and expressions of sentiments on any matter chosen by the committee or referred to the committee by the Moderator of the Association.

3. A Committee on Order of Business consisting of six. The Vice-Moderator shall be the chairman of this committee. It shall be the duty of this committee to present a printed report at both Spring and Fall meetings suggesting the order of business. This report should be acted upon as soon as feasible after the opening of the Association. When adopted, its report shall become the order of the Association and cannot be changed except by majority vote of the body.

4. A Committee on Nominations consisting of three members from each of the counties composing the Association. This committee at the Spring meeting shall nominate representatives of the various institutions, the officers of the Association, and other officers that may be necessary to execute the program of the Association. Nominations by this committee shall not preclude nominations from the floor. No officer of the Association shall hold more than one office at a time. The Nominating Committee should constantly seek the counsel of existing Associational Officers when preparing their report. No name shall be submitted to the Association for election until the individual has agreed to serve if elected.

5. A Committee on Trustees consisting of three, the duty of which shall be to hold in trust any property, endowment, or other securities of the Association.

6. A Committee on Ordination consisting of three. It shall be the duty of this committee to make itself available to any church who has a candidate for the Gospel Ministry.

7. A Committee on History consisting of five members, one member elected each year for five years. This committee shall be responsible for compiling and maintaining a history of the Association.

8. A Committee on Memorials consisting of three members, one from each county. This committee shall be responsible for suitably memorializing deceased members of the churches of the Association and other events as may be necessary.

9. A Committee on Membership consisting of five members, one elected each year for five years. It shall be the duty of this committee to consult with churches in areas of Church-Association relationships and report the desire of the church as regards status in becoming member churches or in desire to withdraw fellowship. A committee from the church and this committee of the Association on membership shall work in all matters of harmony and good will among the churches. This committee functions at the request of the Associational Council of the Executive Promotion Committee and/or the Association meeting in the Fall.

10. A Committee on Constitution consisting of three members. This committee shall keep the constitution up to date and recommend revisions in accordance with the provisions of the constitution.

11. A Committee on Libraries consisting of three members. This committee shall be responsible for the development of the Associational Library organization and will assist the churches in their library work when requested.

12. A Committee on Seminary Extension consisting of three members. The committee shall plan the courses of study and make all arrangements for a balanced program of study.

13. A Committee on Stewardship Development consisting of a Director and nine members, three from each of the counties comprising the Association. This committee shall prepare the Associational Budget, promote the Cooperative Program and designated offerings, promote stewardship development programs. It shall be the duty of this committee to audit the Treasurer's records and report to the Association.

14. A Committee on Missions Development shall consist of a Director, a representative from WMU, Baptist Men, Sunday School, three at large members and the chairperson of each component program. The purpose of the committee shall be to lead the Association to address the mission needs in the local area, to discover the unmet needs, to develop strategies to meet those needs, to coordinate efforts between Sunday School, WMU and Baptist Men, to strengthen the existing churches and to assist in new work starts, and to recommend to the Associational Council mission priorities and plans. Component programs will include Senior Adult Ministries, Disaster Relief Ministries, Ethnic and Cooperative Ministries, with others to be added as needed.

15. A Committee on Evangelism consisting of a Director and six members, two members from each of the counties composing the Association. This committee shall promote evangelism, plan and promote any special evangelistic rallies, such as a simultaneous revivals or other evangelistic activities or meetings.

16. A Committee on Pastor/Church Relations consisting of a Director, a pastor and a layperson from each of the counties composing the Association. It shall be the responsibility of the committee to hold meetings for the purpose of developing plans and programs that will enhance the relationships of pastors and churches. It shall be the responsibility of the committee to recommend to the Associational Council priorities and plans for carrying them out.

17. A Committee on Family and Christian Social Ministries consisting of the director and six members, two from each of the counties composing the Association. It shall be the responsibility of the committee to conduct surveys to determine needs for strengthening the family and determine the greatest needs in Christian Social Ministries. To develop strategies and report to the Associational Council plans for carrying them out.

18. A Committee on Youth consisting of a Director and three members, one from each of the counties composing the Association. It shall be the responsibility of the committee to plan the youth meetings or events to involve the youth of the Association in events and fellowship time together. To develop strategies for carrying them out and report to the Associational Council and Executive Promotion Committee.

19. A Committee on Building and Grounds consisting of six people two from each county composing the Association. One of these will serve as chairman. It will be the duty of the committee to keep a check on the building and grounds to see that they are kept in a good state of repairs and recommend improvements that need to the made. Minor things and emergencies may be taken care of by the chairman in consultation with the Director of Missions. Major things must be dealt with in the committee and come as a recommendation to the Associational Council and Executive Promotion Committee.

Article 32. Any regulation prior to this constitution which conflicts herewith is hereby repealed.

Article 33. Baptist Faith and Message statement.

I. THE SCRIPTURES

The Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired and is the record of God's revelation of Himself to man. It is a perfect treasure of divine instruction. It has God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth, without any mixture or error, for its matter. It reveals the principles by which God judges us; and therefore is, and will remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and religious opinions should be tried. The criterion by which the Bible is to be interpreted is Jesus Christ.

II. GOD

There is one and only one living and true God. He is an intelligent, spiritual, and personal Being, the Creator, Redeemer, Preserver, and Ruler of the universe. God is infinite in holiness and all other perfections. To Him we owe the highest love, reverence, and obedience. The eternal God reveals Himself to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being.

A. God the Father

God as Father reigns with providential care over His universe, His creatures, and the flow of the stream of human history according to the purposes of His grace. He is all powerful, all loving, and all wise. God is Father in truth to those who become children of God through faith in Jesus Christ. He is fatherly in His attitude toward all men.

B. God the Son

Christ is the eternal of God. In His incarnation as Jesus Christ, he was conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. Jesus perfectly revealed and did the will of God, taking upon Himself the demands and necessities of human nature and identifying himself completely with mankind yet without sin. He honored the divine law by His personal obedience, and in His death on the cross, He made provision for the redemption of men from sin. He was raised from the dead with a glorified body and appeared to His disciples as the person who was with them before His crucifixion. He ascended into heaven and is now exalted at the right hand of God where He is the One Mediator, partaking of the nature of God and of man, and in whose Person is effected the reconciliation between God and man. He will return in power and glory to judge the world and to consummate His redemptive mission. He now dwells in all believers as the living and ever present Lord.

C. God the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God. He inspired holy men of old to write the Scriptures. Through illumination, He enables men to understand truth. He exalts Christ. He convicts of sin, of righteousness and of judgment. He calls men to the Saviour, and effects regeneration. He cultivates Christian character, comforts believers, and bestows the spiritual gifts by which they serve God through His church. He seals the believer unto the day of final redemption. His presence in the Christian is the assurance of God to bring the believer into the fulness of the stature of Christ. He enlightens and empowers the believer and the church in worship, evangelism, and service.

III. MAN

Man was created by the special act of God, in His own image, and is the crowning work of His creation. In the beginning, man was innocent of sin and was endowed by His Creator with freedom of choice. By his free choice, man sinned against God and brought sin into the human race. Through the temptation of Satan, man transgressed the command of God and fell from his original innocence; whereby his posterity inherit a nature and an environment inclined toward sin, and as soon as they are capable of moral action become transgressors and are under condemnation. Only the grace of God can bring man into His holy fellowship and enable man to fulfill the creative purpose of God. The sacredness of human personality is evident in that God created man in His own image, and in that Christ died for man; therefore, every man possesses dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love.

IV. SALVATION

Salvation involves the redemption of the whole man, and is offered freely to all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, who by His own blood obtained eternal redemption for the believer. In its broadest sense, salvation includes regeneration, sanctification, and glorification.

A. Regeneration, or the new birth, is a work of God's grace whereby believers become new creatures of Christ Jesus. It is a change of heart wrought by the Holy Spirit through conviction of sin, to which the sinner responds in repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Repentance and faith are inseperable experiences of grace. Repentance is a genuine turning from sin toward God. Faith is the acceptance of Jesus Christ and commitment of the entire personality to Him as Lord and Saviour. Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal upon principles of His righteousness of all sinners who repent and believe in Christ. Justification brings the believer into a relationship of peace and favor with God.

B. Sanctification is the experience, beginning in regeneration, by which the believer is set apart to God's purposes, and is enabled to progress toward moral and spiritual perfection through the presence and power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in him. Growth in grace should continue throughout the regenerate person's life.

C. Glorification is the culmination of salvation and is the final blessed and abiding state of the redeemed.

V. GOD'S PURPOSE OF GRACE

Election is the gracious purpose of God, according to which He regenerates, sanctifies, and glorifies sinners. It is consistent with the free agency of man, and comprehends all the means in connection with the end. It is glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, and is infinitely wise, holy, and unchangeable. It excludes boasting and promotes humility.

All true believers endure to the end. Those whom God has accepted in Christ, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never fall away from the state of grace, but shall preserve to the end. Believers may fall into sin and through neglect and temptation, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, bring reproach on the cause of Christ, and temporal judgments on themselves, yet they shall be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

VI. THE CHURCH

A New Testament Church of the Lord Jesus Christ is a local body of baptized believers who are associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the gospel, observing the two ordinances of Christ, committed to His teachings, exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word, and seeking to extend the gospel to the ends of the earth.

This church is an autonomous body, operating through democratic processes under the Lordship of Jesus Christ. In such a congregation, members are equally responsible. Its Scriptural officers are pastors and deacons.

The New Testament speaks also of the church as the body of Christ which includes all of the redeemed of all the ages.

VII. BAPTISM AND THE LORD'S SUPPER

Christian baptism is the immersion of a believer in water in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is an act of obedience symbolizing the believer's faith in a crucified, buried, and risen Saviour, the believer's death to sin, the burial of the old life, and resurrection to walk in newness of life in Christ Jesus. It is a testimony to his faith in the final resurrection of the dead. Being a church ordinance, it is prerequisite to the privileges of church membership and to the Lord's Supper.

The Lord's Supper is a symbolic act of obedience whereby members of the church, through partaking of the bread and the fruit of the vine, memorialize the death of the Redeemer and anticipate His second coming.

VIII. THE LORD'S DAY

The first day of the week is the Lord's Day. It is a Christian institution for regular observance. It commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the dead and should be employed in exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private, and by refraining from worldly amusements, and resting from secular employments, work of necessity and mercy only being excepted.

IX. THE KINGDOM

The Kingdom of God includes both His general sovereignty over the universe and His particular kingship over men who willfully ackowledge Him as King. Particularly the Kingdom is the realm of salvation into which men enter by trustful, childlike commitment to Jesus Christ. Christians ought to pray and to labor that the Kingdom may come and God's will be done on earth. The full consummation of the Kingdom awaits the return of Jesus Christ and the end of this age.

X. LAST THINGS

God, in His own time and in His own way, will bring the world its appropriate end. According to His promise, Jesus Christ will return personally and visibly in glory to the earth; the dead will be raised; and Christ will judge all men in righteousness. The unrighteous will be consigned to Hell, the place of everlasting punishment. The righteous in their resurrected and glorified bodies will receive their reward and will dwell forever in Heaven with the Lord.

XI. EVANGELISM AND MISSIONS

It is the duty and privilege of every follower of Christ and of every church of the Lord Jesus Christ to endeavor to make disciples of all nations. The new birth of man's spirit by God's Holy Spirit means the birth of love for others. Missionary effort on the part of all rests thus upon a spiritual necessity of the regenerate life, and is expressly and repeatedly commanded in the teachings of Christ. It is the duty of every child of God to seek constantly to win the lost to Christ by personal effort and by all other methods in harmony with the gospel of Christ.

XII. EDUCATION

The cause of education in the Kingdom of Christ is to coordinate with the causes of missions and general benevolence, and should receive along with these, the liberal support of the churches. An adequate system of Christian schools is necessary to a complete spiritual program for Christ's people.

In Christian education, there should be a proper balance between academic freedom and academic responsibility. Freedom in any orderly relationship of human life is always limited and never absolute. The freedom of a teacher in a Christian school, college, or seminary is limited by the preeminence of Jesus Christ, by the authoritative nature of the Scripture, and by the distinct purpose for which the school exists.

XIII. STEWARDSHIP

God is the source of all blessings, temporal and spiritual; all that we have and are, we owe to Him. Christians have a spiritual debtorship to the whole world, a holy trusteeship in the gospel, and a binding stewardship in their possessions. They are therefore under the obligation to serve Him with their time, talents, and material possessions; and should recognize all these as entrusted to them to use for the glory of God and for helping others. According to the Scriptures, Christians should contribute of their means cheerfully, regularly, systematically, proportionately, and liberally for the advancement of the Redeemer's cause on earth.

XIV. COOPERATION

Christ's people should, as occasion requires, organize such associations and conventions as may best secure cooperation for the great objects of the Kingdom of God. Such organizations have no authority over one another or over the churches. They are voluntary and advisory bodies designed to elicit, combine, and direct the energies of our people in the most effective manner. Members of New Testament churches should cooperate with one another in carrying forward the missionary, educational, and benevolent ministries for the extension of Christ's Kingdom. Christian unity in the New Testament sense is spiritual harmony and voluntary cooperation for common ends by various groups of Christ's people. Cooperation is desirable between the various Christian denominations, when the end to be attained is itself justified, and when such cooperation involves no violation of conscience or compromise of loyalty to Christ and His Word as revealed in the New Testament.

XV. THE CHRISTIAN AND THE SOCIAL ORDER

Every Christian is under obligation to seek to make the will of Christ supreme in his own life and in human society. Means and methods used for the improvement of society and the establishment of righteousness among men can be truly and permanently helpful only when they are rooted in the regeneration of the individual by the saving grace of God in Christ Jesus. The Christian should oppose in the spirit of Christ every form of greed, selfishness, and vice. He should work to provide for the orphaned, the needy, the aged, the helpless, and the sick. Every Christian should seek to bring industry, government, and society as a whole under the sway of the principles of righteousness, truth, and brotherly love. In order to promote these ends, Christians should be ready to work with all men of good will in any good cause, always being careful to act in the spirit of love without compromising their loyalty to Christ and His truth.

XVI. PEACE AND WAR

It is the duty of Christians to seek peace with all men on principles of righteousness. In accordance with the spirit and teachings of Christ, they should do all in their power to put an end to war.

The true remedy for the war spirit is the gospel of our Lord. The supreme need of the world is the acceptance of His teachings in all the affairs of men and nations, and the practical application of His law of love.

XVII. RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

God alone is Lord of the conscience, and he has left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are contrary to His Word or not contained in it. Church and state should be separate. The state owes to every church protection and full freedom in the pursuit of its spiritual ends. In providing for such freedom, no ecclesiastical group or denomination should be favored by the state more than others. Civil government being ordained of God, it is the duty of Christians to render loyal obedience thereto in all things not contrary to the revealed will of God. The church should not resort to the civil power to carry on its work. The gospel of Christ contemplates spiritual means alone for the pursuit of its ends. The state has no right to impose penalties for religious opinions of any kind. The state has no right to impose taxes for the support of any form of religion. A free church in a free state is the Christian ideal, and this implies the right of free and unhindered access to God on the part of all men, and the right to form and propagate opinions in the sphere of religion without interference by the civil power.

In this my final report to West Chowan Baptist Association, I would like to say THANKS to all of you for allowing me to be your Director of Missions for the last six and a half years. These have been good productive years, for which I am proud and thankful also. You have been so wonderful to work with. It is a good Association. May God's blessings be forever with you, as you make it even better in the years to come.

(Retired)

Executive Promotions Committee Report

The Executive Promotion Committee met four times during the Associational year. Each organizational director and committee chairperson was given an opportunity to give a report and promote their work. Some of the highlights in the association this year were:

1. Planned for the World Missions Conference to be held in October, 1993.
2. A committee was appointed to study guidelines for ordination council.
3. The Apostoli team was in the association and again it was a big success.
4. The Missions Project Fund was redesignated to the New York and Ukraine Partnership.
5. The association will participate in "Here's Hope Revival" in March 1995.
6. An appreciation event was held in honor of Rev. Lonnie Armstrong (DOM).
7. There were over thirty churches that made a commitment to participate in the World Missions Conference.
8. On August 15, 1993, Rev. Ken Gibson was called by the association to serve as Director of Missions. We thank God for him and he has our support in helping him to continue to make West Chowan Baptist Association the best in serving our Saviour.

In closing, there are two dear friends who have retired after serving the association well for many years. They are Miss Anna Belle Crouch, music director and Rev. Lonnie Armstrong, Director of Missions. We all wish them the very best on their retirement and may God bless them in a very special way.

We thank God for all the things that have been accomplished in the past year and are looking forward to the things to be accomplished in this new year.

Stewardship Development Committee Report

"Stewardship" isn't an idea that some money-minded theologian conjured up. Nor is it a fancy term for money-grubbing con artists who are more at home on a stage than in a pulpit.

Although "stewardship" often gets a bum rap because of our own snap judgments and shortsightedness, it is a concept firmly grounded in scripture. Stewardship is an attitude of serving.

Thank you for serving West Chowan Baptist Association this past year 1992-93. Your giving in support has made this a great year for the kingdoms work.

This committee worked on the new budget for 1993-94 and presented it to the Council and Executive Promotional Committee and was adopted. The total new budget is $83,923.43.

Thanks be to God for a growing association - past, present and future.

Respectfully submitted,
Ronald W. McSwain, Director

RA Report

We had a good year in RA's. In November we had RA week in many of the churches which was the week of November 1-7th.

We had an RA Rally at Mt. Tabor Church with 100 boys and leaders present which was on November 12 and we had a really good time.

On December 3 we had no response for the RA World Walk for Missions.

On March 4 we had a RA walk for Home Missions. On March 25 at Merry Hill Baptist Church we had the RA and Baptist Young Men and Leaders small car race with about 150 in attendance. Trophies were given to first and second place winners in each age group. Merry Hill gave us a supper, enjoyed by all.

The final event for the year was the RA Field Day Track Meet, 200 plus people were there. Jo Ann Mizelle led in the registration of the events and many other men and women helped with the events and judging. We had three boys and their leaders to attend the State Track Meet Conference.

I would like to thank each and everyone of you for your help and support this year in the work of the RA's.

Thank you!

Your RA Director,
Rev. Wint Hale

Sunday School Report

Thank you for allowing me to serve you again this year. We had a good attendance at Sunday School Leadership night. The theme for 93-94 is "Breakthrough - Serve to Win". Remember our increase goals during the five years of Breakthrough are 9.4 percent.

Evangelism and witnessing are to be a priority in every Sunday School next year. Effective teaching is absolutely essential if a Sunday School is to do its work properly.

"The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few". Let us minister to the hurting world as we serve our Lord in West Chowan Association.

Pastor/Church Relations Report

The committee met in May and June to make plans and arrangements for a two-session conference to be led by David L. Odom, Director of the Center for Congregational Health, NC Baptist Hospital Department of Pastoral Care.

The conference is planned for November 8 and 9 from 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. at the West Chowan Association office building. Monday night's topic is "Elements of Congregational Health and Tuesday night's topic is "Conflict in Congregational Life."

All pastors, other staff ministers, deacons, SS Directors, WMU Directors, DT Directors, Choir Directors, Baptist Men Directors and other interested church members are urged to attend.

Pray for God to use this conference for good in our association.

Joe McLean

Seminary Extension

We have had some success in our seminary extension program. We have conducted the courses taught at the Odom Correctional Institution. These courses at Odom are part of our missionary outreach in the West Chowan association. It was hoped that more of our pastors might be interested in seminary extension, but in truth we have had more laymen take the courses which have been offered. We have not used our budgeted money for this past year mainly because our State Convention subsidizes the tuition which is charged. Incidentally some of our Southern Baptist schools give full academic credit for seminary extension courses towards a college degree.

Family and Christian Social Ministries Report

The Committee on Family and Christian Social Ministries assisted two families during their medical crisis. We distributed the balance of the funds for this year to local agencies which include: Northampton County Department of Social Services, Hertford County Department of Social Services, Roanoke Chowan S.A.F.E. and Roanoke Chowan Hospice, Inc. The Committee continues to request referral from pastors and churches related to needs in the area.

Disaster Relief Ministry

Unfortunately, your Disaster Relief Team has been very active this past year. We began the year with training sessions taught by the American Red Cross consisting of Damage Assessment and Mass Care, to better equip ourselves for ministry.

Several from West Chowan Baptist Association responded to the call for volunteers to go to Miami between Christmas and New Year's Day to do reconstruction work. The response of the volunteers was very good and much work was accomplished in cleaning and repairing homes damaged by Hurricane Andrew.

Our Disaster Relief Team was called to go to Miami again February 25 through March 1 to prepare meals for the reconstruction teams from North Carolina working in the Richmond Heights community. Fourteen people from West Chowan Baptist Association worked either in construction or on the cooking team.

The Disaster Relief Unit was called out again in July to prepare meals for the victims of the Mississippi River floods, first in Hannibal, Missouri, and then in Hardin, Ilinois. The Disaster Relief Team of West Chowan Association was the tenth team called on to man the Unit. Sixteen people from the team went to Hardin and worked August 24-29. While serving there we prepared approximately 5,200 meals. Most of the food we prepared was sent out and served from the American Red Cross Emergency Response Vehicles, with who we work.

Before the team returned from Illinois, Hurricane Emily was threatening the North Carolina coast. North Carolina Baptist Men was busy preparing a second Disaster Relief Unit which was called to Buxton, N.C. immediately after the storm. One week later, your Disaster Relief Team was in Buxton preparing meals for storm victims and relief workers. The Team included volunteers from West Chowan Association, Chowan Association, and others. Forty volunteers worked together August 7-11 preparing and serving more than 11,200 meals. From September 2-11, more than 40,000 meals were prepared and served by the North Carolina Baptist Men Disaster Relief Ministry in Buxton. Many other volunteers have gone to help people clean up their homes and get on with their lives.

This ministry provides the practical help people need who have been victims of a disaster. Many of them express heartfelt thanks of our ministry among them. This ministry also opens the door for sharing the good news that Jesus loves us, He is always present with us, He goes with us through all of life, both the good and the bad, and he provides the way of salvation to all who will believe in Him.

While we pray we never be needed again, we also call on others to volunteer to be trained to be called out on short notice to work hard and cooperatively with others under difficult circumstances to meet the needs of disaster victims in the name of Jesus. You are invited to be trained for this ministry by attending the annual training meeting at Caraway Conference Center April 22-23, 1994. For information and reservations, call 1-800-395-5102.

WMU Report

Lead On...

Lead On...What a challenge that is to each of us! The Lord is asking no less than what he did while he lived here on earth. To be a representative in our churches and communities we must be willing and able to serve. WMU is a wonderful training ground for serving our risen Lord. I challenge each of you to be the best Christian you can be, for you never know who is watching and learning from you.

Our year began with a planning session in May, 1992. New members to join the council were Donna Dickson (BYW), Pam Woodard (Asst. BYW), Wanda DeLong (Acteens), Esther Davis (Mission Action), and Virginia Hardison (Asst. MA) Leadership conferences were held in September at Colerain and Rich Square. World Day of Prayer, and Foreign and Home Mission studies were held during the year. Women from our association attended the State WMU Conference at Ridgecrest. The Baptist Women enjoyed a trip to Hamilton Retirement Home. The 1976 West Chowan Cookbooks were reprinted - 1,000 ordered and sold. The Baptist Young Women held a Fellowship Banquet. The acteens held a handbook study. There were three new Acteen groups - Capeharts, Elm Grove and Buckhorn. Some activities provided for Girls in Action were an overnight camp, Christmas in August, Missions Mania, and Mission Studies. Missions Friends Leaders were provided a workshop that had 200 (plus) craft ideas for teaching missions to young children.

Great things are happening in our association. WMU members are reaching out to people in need. Missions projects are being carried out at home and away. New groups are being started - GA's at Jackson and Elam. Teenagers are becoming Acteen queens - six crowned at Conway in February. Scholarships were given to Lori Liverman and Emily Taylor. Let's continue to be servant leaders.

Congratulations to the following churches that have achieved Distinguished Recognition on the Achievement Guide for ten or more years: Potecasi (10), Askewville (11), Union (14), and Buckhorn (20).

Please continue to pray for us as individuals and as a council. We are here to serve you and to help you in any way we can. As we begin our 100th year as an associational WMU, let's put missions first.

In Christian Love,
Melinda Harris and Wanda McEntire

Evangelism Report

This past year found the Evangelism Committee planning and promoting three different events intended to equip and inspire our churches to be involved in evangelism. The committee was privileged to have planned three highly successful events. On January 23, Reverend Billy Nale, pastor of Galatia Baptist Church, led a Soul Winning Witnessing Workshop at the Galatia Baptist Church. The workshop helped to equip twenty-two adults to better share their faith. The afternoon session gave all the participants an opportunity to make evangelistic visits in the Conway/Galatia area.

During March the Evangelism Committee combined efforts with the Youth Committee and planned an extensive "Get A Life" Youth Rally which included conducting high school assemblies in four of the area high schools and speaking to the Chowan College Baptist Student Union. Mr. Steve Freeman was our guest musician/speaker. Steve had an opportunity to share his Christian testimony with over 2,200 students in Bertie County, Hertford County, Gates County and Northampton East County High Schools. The whole event was climaxed with a youth rally held at the Hertford County High School with 245 youth and adults in attendance.

During the summer the Evangelism Committee was able to secure the college age singing group "Witness". On July 13th over 250 youth and adults who filled Turner Auditorium on the Chowan College campus. Miss Tine Duncan, a youth corps worker from Powellsville Baptist Church, gave powerful personal testimony.

It has been my privilege to have chaired the Evangelism Committee for the past three years. During the coming Associational year I will be serving as the Associational Moderator, but I am delighted to know that the 1993-94 Evangelism Committee will be in the capable and dedicated hands of Reverend C.T. Edmonson. I trust that you will give him and his committee your support as we work to reach the people of our area with the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Music Report

Our musicians, including singers, instrumentalists, handbell ringers, relatives and friends have been involved with sacred music among the churches of WCBA this year. Thank you for your beautiful service.

Another Standard of Excellence award was received from the Southern Baptist Music Department. This shows that our people are alert to the musical challenges before them.

Women from various churches were a part of the inter-racial choir for the BWA Women's Division Day of Prayer. Mrs. Mary Rose Lawrence, Director of Music at the Buckhorn Baptist Church as the director.

Mrs. Carolyn Edmondson represented our association at the state Key Leadership Music conference at Caswell in May.

Six meetings were held with the music council to discuss the Music Day Camp held July 12-16. The members were Carrie Buck, Janet Rogers, Lisa Barber, Libby Wilson, Robbie Best, Lemar Wheeler, Thomas Ruffin, Danny Vancil, Hugh Patterson and Lonnie Armstrong. Thirty-five churches were represented at the Music Day Camp. Three hundred thirty-nine persons including children, youth and adults were involved. The musicals were "Jonah" and "A Technicolor Promise". Mrs. Libby Tilson directed the younger children and Mr. Danny Vancil led the older children. Everyone is to be commended for an outstanding week. All the children brought can goods for the SAFE House and Food Pantry. We thank Ahoskie First Baptist Church for letting us use their facilities for the sixth year. July 11-15, 1994 is the date for the next Children's Music Day Camp. Offerings from the camp came to $1,000. This amount was divided between the NC Disaster Relief Fund and the NC Partnership in New York.

Rev. Hugh Patterson, Minister of Music and Youth, Galatia Baptist Church is your new WCBA Music Director. He will follow-through with the projects which we were unable to complete this year. He led the Key Leadership music conference in September. Call upon him. He will help you.

Thanks to all of you for your uplifting encouragement and assistance. You can look forward to far reaching results as you praise the Lord with heavenly sounds. Go forth in service to reach out to others in music for our Lord and Savior. God Bless You!

The Biblical Recorder

Associational Report - 1993

The only thing that is unchangeable is change itself! For most of us it is impossible to comprehend the radical and often destructive changes which are taking place in our world. In politics, morals, economics and church life, our Baptist world is faced with decisions and issues without equal.

Whatever one's view may be, there is an indispendable need for correct and reliable information. The Biblical Recorder was born and continues to serve for that purpose. Never was the Recorder more needed than now.

People are reading less than any time in recent history. It is true of secular publications, it is true of wholesome books from respected libraries, it is true of religious publications. We live in an electronic age where we often think we know the answers to the issues only to discover we do not.

An informed Baptist is a better Baptist; an uninformed Baptist may be an uninvolved or disruptive Baptist. No democracy, including our local churches, can survive long without an informed, involved constituency which makes decisions based upon accurate information from reliable sources.

The most important thing facing us at this point is to get the Recorder into more Baptist homes than ever before. Your support as a subscriber and reader and your encouragement to others will enable the paper to better serve the constituency with accurate and helpful information delivered to Baptist homes and churches. We need your help!

In order to save churches large amounts of money and to increase the readership of the Recorder, Church News Service (CNS) was launched in 1990. This system lets any congregation have their church newsletter incorporated into the Biblical Recorder which saves staff time, postage and printing costs. Usually, for less than what it costs to produce the church newsletter, CNS gives the entire Baptist communication package to each family in the congregation. Anticipated increases in mailing costs makes CNS a greater value in 1994 than even when it was started in 1990.

The paper focuses more and more attention on North Carolina Baptists with news, features and inspirational articles which will encourage individuals and churches in their witness and ministry. One sure way to conquer problems and overcome the barriers to effective witness and ministry is to have the facts, know the issues and be adequately informed.

That is why the Recorder was born; that is why it serves today. For more information on how your church can subscribe or use CNS, contact:

Christian Action League Report 1993

Do you believe in miracles? They still occur, and we experienced one in the 1993 session of the N.C. General Assembly. No gambling legislation was enacted during that legislative session.

When the legislators came to Raleigh on January 27, 1993, veteran legislature observers admitted that this was the year for a state-operated lottery bill to get out of the General Assembly. Both Governor James B. Hunt and Lt. Governor Dennis Wicker, both former lottery opponents, had endorsed the proposed lottery legislation. Furthermore, there were 42 new House members, and a large majority of them had campaigned supporting the lottery. Out of the key elected state officials, gambling opponents had only one friend, House Speaker Dan Blue, and he made no apologies about his opposition to state-sponsored gambling.

What happened? Concerned Christians began to speak up and contacted their legislators. By the time, Senate Bill 11, The State Lottery Act, had passed the Senate by a vote of 27-23, House members who had campaigned supporting lottery legislation began contacting members of the House Committee on Constitutional Amendments and Referenda to keep the bill in committee.

In the meantime, some 20 workshops were conducted throughout the state educating and motivating the Christian community about this insidious evil under the sponsorship of the League, N.C. Baptist Men, Woman's Missionary Union, the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs, and the N.C. Christian Coalition. Resource leaders included Dr. Norman Geisler, author, Gambling a Bad Bet; Dr. Patrick Anderson, Professor of Criminology, Florida Southern College; Dr. Paul Jones, Executive Director, Mississippi Christian Action Commission; Bill Brooks, Executive Director, Citizens Against the Lottery; from the Baptist State Convention, Doug Cole, Executive Director, Christian Life Council; along with George Reed, Director of Christian Citizenship; and members of Gamblers Anonymous.

In the closing days of the legislative session, Rep. David Redwine, (D-Brunswick), who has introduced lottery legislation for the past 10 years, requested that the bill be held over until the 1994 session.

Of course, this will give the $300 billion gambling industry some 10 months to regroup their supporters. Also it will give concerned Christians the time to get their message to lawmakers that gambling is bad public policy, and such legislation ought to be defeated.

There is also a pari-mutuel gambling proposal (horse racing with off-track betting parlors) before the General Assembly. The House Bill has also passed a House Committee and is currently in the House Appropriations Committee. Both bills are eligible for the 1994 session.

Someone has said: "The only lesson we learn from history is that we don't learn from history." North Carolina had an experience with pari-mutuel gambling with dog tracks in Currituck and Carteret Counties in the early 1950's. The N.C. Supreme Court closed them down as being a public nuisance.

Perhaps there is no industry that is "riddled" with corruption as much as the gambling industry. Last year we had legislators indicted in S.C. for accepting bribes from gambling lobbyists. Some 10 public officials have pled guilty to corruption charges in Kentucky over a gambling pledge "scam", and 12 others are under investigation. In Arizona, legislators have gone to prison due to a gambling scandal. We have had Governors from West Virginia and from Maryland to go to prison due to gambling scandals in their respective states. Wherever you have legalized gambling, undoubtedly, you will find corruption in government.

This is why it is urgent for committed Christians to contact their legislators and urge them to oppose any gambling proposals.

DRUNK DRIVING: When you deal with politicians, tenacity is a key. For ten years, we have sought legislation that would establish .08 breathalyzer reading as the standard for drunk driving in North Carolina. In the past, we were able to get such legislation through the House, but the Senate was the graveyard. The measure would always be referred to a hostile Senate Committee composed largely of trial lawyers, and that would be "death" to such a proposal.

With a change in Senate leadership, the .08 breathalyzer legislation will become law on October 1, 1993, which will be a useful tool in helping to remove drunk drivers from the highways.

The League continues to assist local communities in combatting our No. 1 drug problem, alcohol. Let us know if a liquor referendum is to be held in your area, and we will be ready to help.

Thank you for standing with us in the cause of Applied Christianity through your prayer and financial support.

Sincerely,
Joe S. Lennon, President
Coy C. Privette, Executive Director

Home Mission Board Annual Report

The Home Mission Board (HMB) is a missionary-sending agency of the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC). Headquartered in Atlanta, Ga., the HMB's purpose is to serve Southern Baptists by assisting churches to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ, start and grow New Testament congregations, and minister to people in the name of Christ.

At the end of last year, 4,868 missions personnel were serving in the United States, the Caribbean, American Samoa, and Canada. The HMB also had endorsed more than 2,200 chaplains who were serving in healthcare agencies, institutions, businesses, the military, and pastoral-care roles. More than 2,400 Mission Service Corps volunteers were serving on home mission fields. During the year there were 367,847 baptisms and 1,281 church starts.

Approximately half the HMB's support comes from individual SBC churches through the annual Annie Armstrong Easter Offering for Home Missions. In 1992, gifts to the offering totaled $37.61 million, up almost 6 percent from the 1991 total. One hundred percent of the offering goes to support the work of home missionaries in the field. The 1993 Annie Armstrong Easter Offering goal is $38 million. About 36 percent of the HMB's income comes from the denomination's Cooperative Program.

Home missions is a partnership of the HMB, state conventions, associations, and churches. The HMB's strategy is to help start churches, ministry endeavors, and evangelism efforts that will grow to self-support or be carried on by local churches or associations.

CHAPLAINCY MINISTRIES: The 2,293 Southern Baptists now serving as chaplains and pastoral counselors reported 24,000 professions of faith and 4,600 baptisms.

ALTERNATIVES TO ABORTION: Workers in 23 crisis pregnancy centers received training from the HMB. As a result of the ministry of these centers, 2,164 babies were born and 832 women found faith in Christ.

CHURCH LOANS: More than 1,100 churches had active loans totaling $115 million. These loans purchased, refinanced, remodeled, or constructed 106 buildings and purchased 9 building sites.

LANGUAGE MISSIONS: Home missionaries and pastors in the Language Church Extension Division serve among 102 ethnic groups using 98 languages and dialects.

PERSONAL EVANGELISM: During the Southern Baptist Convention in Indianapolis, 1,353 volunteers canvassed 45,235 residences, conducted a religious survey, and shared the gospel with 2,905 individuals, 361 of whom made professions of faith.

PRAYER AND SPIRITUAL AWAKENING: A national team began efforts to enhance effective prayer and revival ministries in churches. The Intercessory Prayerline grew from 7,500 calls in 1985 to 130,000 last year.

VOLUNTEERS: Over 71,000 Southern Baptist adults, college students and youth group members volunteered for long and short-term projects. More than 58,000 volunteers responded to disaster relief efforts in Florida, Louisiana and Hawaii.

SPECIAL MINISTRIES: Southern Baptists minister to seamen in 37 port cities and 200 missionaries are involved in ministries related to college students, resorts, special events, and diplomats.

North Carolina Baptist Foundation Report

June, 1993

The North Carolina Baptist Foundation works diligently in service to Christ as directed by the agency's Mission Statement:

"The North Carolina Baptist Foundation is an agency of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina committed under the guidance of the Holy Spirit to serving North Carolina Baptists and others in generating an increased awareness of Christian estate stewardship principals as a means of financially undergirding churches, institutions and mission endeavors on a permanent basis.

And further, the Baptist Foundation Staff and Board of Directors are committed to being scrupulously moral, legal, efficient and accurate in carrying out the intent of each donor and trustor whose funds are placed under management of the Foundation as a means of sustaining a tangible and perpetual involvement in presenting the Gospel, meeting human needs and strengthening all bodies of Christian fellowship where Christ is the Head."

The total market value of the assets of the Foundation at the end of 1992 was $41,880,638., an increase of almost $5.6 million over the end of 1991. Typically, assets are either held as endowments paying interest income in perpetuity to named Baptist causes, or they are held in trust with current income being paid to individuals and future income to be paid to Baptist causes in perpetuity. Additionally, the Foundation offers fund management for Baptist causes on a revocable basis.

In 1992, and continuing into 1993, the Long Range Planning Committee of the Board of Directors met extensively to lay the groundwork for the Foundation's goals and objectives for the next five years. The previous five years were quite successful with ambitious financial goals being met early on. It is anticipated that the Board's work in evaluating the past and present status and in laying a road map for the future will result in exciting times ahead.

The staff of the Foundation consists of seven full time employees and two persons who provide part-time service in accounting and legal services. The office is located in Cary next to the Baptist State Convention building. Visitors are welcome and are encouraged to stop by for professional assistance or just to say hello.

1993 Baptist Children's Homes Report

Chris starts college at North Carolina State this fall on a football scholarship. After leading Thomasville to a state championship in 1991, Chris also earned national honor society recognition, was active in the community counseling drug abusers. . . and became a Christian at Mills Home.

Kathy married a Christian young man who was a volunteer at Broyhill Home, where she lived. She continues her education at Haywood Technical College while working and becoming a young wife. She and her husband, Kris, are members at Woodland Baptist Church, where she was active in leading children's programs, even as a Broyhill resident.

Several rows of supportive staff members cried during the wedding when the minister asked, "Who gives this woman to be married?" Child care worker Jim Johnson responded, "Her mother and I do."

"Her mother," was Jim's wife, Vivian. Together, Jim and Vivian helped Kathy develop from an angry and withdrawn child, to a beautiful, confident, Christian leader.

Ashley was growing up too fast. . . and her parents didn't know how to handle it. They wanted to treat her like a child; she wanted adult freedoms. When their constant clashing came to blows, they knew they needed help.

Through the family clarification program at Mills Home, both Ashley and her parents learned the roles they played in the family conflict, and how to listen, forgive and adjust in the future.

"We're very grateful to Baptist Children's Homes," said Ashley's mother, Victoria. "I don't know what we would have done. I don't know what would have happened to Ashley. I've had friends say to me, 'I never knew there was a place like that.'"

Well, there is a place like that.

Thank God.

Baptist Children's Homes in 1992-93 served 1,453 children and their families through programs of intentionalized services at 13 facilities across North Carolina.

Those facilities include four residential care campuses; seven emergency care homes; two homes for behaviorally troubled girls; therapeutic camping for boys; a maternity home; a home for teen-age mothers and their babies and a model daycare facility.

Baptist churches, through the Thanksgiving Offering, Cooperative Program and direct gifts funded about one-third of BCH's $10 million budget. A significant source of income continues to be from estate gifts from those who remember children in their wills.

BCH's model daycare service took a giant step June 27 when the new $1 million, 10,000 sq. ft. Fleshman-Pratt Early Childhood Education Center was dedicated. It will accommodate 75 infants, toddlers and two-year olds.

During dedication, Robin Britt, N.C. Secretary of the N.C. Department of Human Resources, said BCH is "a true model of how young children can be shaped, nurtured and loved," and that "we will be looking at institutions like the Fleshman-Pratt Early Childhood Education Center as we find models to replicate."

T. Winfield Blackwell, president of the Fleshman-Pratt Foundation, whose lead gift started construction of the building, said, "Think how many children will be raised and shaped by the dedicated staff who serve here, and surely a goodly number will be developed, not only to be good citizens, but active ministers in God's service."

Churches interested in beginning or improving their daycare ministry can get free help from director Mary Lou Dickey. Call (919) 472-3503.

BCH also dedicated a counselor's lodge at Cameron Boys Camp; completed a strategic planning cycle for the next three years; celebrated the 50th anniversary of Odum Home in Pembroke; completed a three-year partnership with the Baptist Children's Homes of Sao Paulo, Brazil; and produced a new video about BCH, available Aug. 15.

Swelling with emotion at the dedication of her new building, Daycare Service Director Mary Lou Dickey promised,"we will not fail" those who trust BCH with their children.

Michael C. Blackwell, who celebrated his 10th anniversary as president of BCH July 1, echoes that promise. "Baptist Children's Homes has been a cutting-edge ministry for North Carolina Baptists since 1885. As a disintegrating society moves the edges further and further, we're honing our ministry sharper and sharper. Thank you, North Carolina Baptists, for your support."

Baptist Retirement Homes

1993: THE BEST OF TIMES

Did you know that:

In 1993, North Carolina reached place number ten (10) among all the states in the United States in regard to the size of its adult population over the age of sixty-five (65).

That one-half of all the people who have ever lived to be sixty-five (65) are now living.

The fastest growing segment of North Carolina Baptist life is composed of those adults eighty-five (85) and older and that by the year 2000 that age category will double in size.

That by the year 1996 North Carolina's "Baby Boomers" will be turning fifty-five (55) every 18 seconds.

That by the year 2010 one out of every two people living in North Carolina will be fifty (50) years of age or older?

What do figures like those above mean for North Carolina Baptists?

They point to the fact that one of the greatest needs facing our Convention as we move into the year 2000 is the provision of quality, affordable long-term care services to functionally impaired Older Adults through the expansion of existing long-term care facilities, and through the development of creative approaches to long-term care such as rural home health services, community day care programs, and respite programs for homebound care providers.

In an attempt to meet the above mentioned need, Baptist Retirement Homes of North Carolina, Inc. in 1993:

Opened the Rickman Nursing Care Center in Asheville, North Carolina (a 100 bed Medicaid certified nursing care facility).

The Rickman Center is a state-of-the-art long-term care facility that has been developed to meet the needs of the poor elderly in Western North Carolina. (80% of the resident population will be recipients of benevolent funding).

Renovated the Albemarle Baptist Home in Stanly Baptist Association and renamed it the Taylor House. The Taylor House has no financial requirements for admission and is designed to provide care to the assisted living level of care resident, regardless of his/her ability to pay for the long-term care services provided.

Developed a new addition to the Brookridge Health Care Unit in Winston-Salem in order to provide an area for small group work with residents suffering from dementia. This state-of-the-art program will enable Baptist Retirement Homes' staff to improve the quality of life experienced by members of its resident community who are mentally impaired.

Baptist Retirement Homes is keenly aware of the fact that without the support of North Carolina Baptists none of the above would have been possible. As a result of the prayers and funding that the "Homes" receives through the Cooperative Program and the North Carolina Offering For Older Adults, it has been able to offer hope to many Older Adults whose future would have been uncertain without the caring involvement of North Carolina Baptists. It is because of you that our institution has been able to make life for many Older Adults in 1993...The Best of Times.

Thank you North Carolina Baptists for your support!

William B. Stillerman, President
Baptist Retirement Homes of North Carolina, Inc.

1993 N.C. Baptist Hospitals Report

Founded in 1922, Baptist Hospital is a missionary enterprise of the Baptist churches of North Carolina. The essence of our purpose is to carry out a ministry of healing as taught by Jesus Christ. We remain as fully committed to this mission as were our founding fathers. In the midst of changing health-care norms, we have not, nor will we, deviate from this mission. The following paragraphs report, not only basic facts, but various results of how we have sought in the last year to remain true to our heritage while providing quality health care at affordable prices.

PROVIDERS AND RECIPIENTS OF HEALING

Our healing team now consists of 5,852 employees. The Medical Center (NCBH and BGSM) personnel total employment is fast approaching 9,000 people making us the second largest employer in Forsyth County. In our 806-bed facility, we had 23,247 inpatient admissions. Our Outpatient Department, physicians' clinics, and other related departments received 490,667 patient visits.

Our chaplaincy division joined with our health-care professionals to provide spiritual and emotional healing. With 15-40 chaplains present at various times, 52,934 ministries were provided to patients, families, staff and groups.

A new department of our Pastoral Care program named the Center for Congregational Health was given birth. Its purpose is to (1) train Intentional Interim pastors; (2) train church leaders; (3) provide a minister's assessment program; (4) establish a Minister's Help Line providing an opportunity for church leaders to receive guidance via a telephone call. The Pastoral Counseling Division opened a new counseling center in Wilmington bringing our total counseling centers to 11 across the state. The centers provided 16,205 counseling sessions.

POINTS OF EXCELLENCE

(1) The Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations ranks Baptist Hospital in the top 9% of all hospitals in the nation.

(2) We performed our first pancreas transplant and first double organ transplant (pancreas and kidney) this year.

(3) We are one of only 26 comprehensive cancer care centers in the nation, treating more cancer patients than any hospital from Baltimore, Md. to Atlanta, GA.

(4) Quality infant through adolescence care in our Brenner Children's Hospital.

(5) Our neonatal transport team is the largest in North Carolina and one of the 10 largest in the U.S.

(6) Our Level I (highest awarded) Trauma Center has 2,100 admissions a year.

SUPERB FINANCIAL STEWARDSHIP

In the midst of escalating health-care costs, we have a proven record of excellent stewardship.

(1) The latest report of the North Carolina Database Commission comparing hospital major services charges vs. Baptist Hospital reveals, for our most frequent diagnoses:

Duke 36% higher
Carolina's Medical Center (Charlotte) - 36.5% higher
UNC - Chapel Hill - 28% higher
Average statewide - 9% higher

(2) We are one of only 17 similar hospitals nationally with a ''AA'' bond credit rating.

(3) Averaging the last two years and the projection for 1993, the Consumer Price Index will average 3.9% and the Medical CPI will average 9.7%. Baptist Hospital charge increases for the same period will average 3.3%, well under both the above mentioned indexes.

EXPANSION FOR MEETING THE NEEDS OF THE FUTURE

Nursing Center at Oak Summit

Opening in July, this 170-bed facility provides skilled and intermediate care. The center will be one of only a few in the state to provide care for ventilator-dependent patients.

Emergency Department/Dietary

Under construction at the present time to be completed by June 1995, this facility will total 750,000 square feet. Our current ER was designed to handle 29,000 patients annually, but it is handling more than 40,000. Our new ER capacity will be 70,000 annually. This building will also house three floors of patient private rooms, our Pharmacy Department, and a 35-bed Day Hospital, new kitchen and cafeteria.

J. Paul Sticht Center on Aging and Rehabilitation

Construction on this facility begins in November of 1993 and is scheduled for completion in January 1996. It will include geriatric care, research, and education; psychiatry; and also provide comprehensive acute rehabilitation services including nutrition assessment, physical, outpatient, speech, and recreational therapy.

BAPTIST BENEVOLENT CARE FUND

Last year Baptists across our state gave $422,000 to our annual Mother's Day Offering. All of these monies went toward relieving the financial burden of scores of former patients who have little or no health-care insurance and no financial means to pay their hospital bills. The churches and individuals help make this ministry possible and we are grateful.

In conclusion, it is readily seen that this healing ministry we share together says to our patients and their families: "We care about your health-care needs, your spiritual and emotional needs, and your financial burdens, and we express our caring through service."
